These forward-looking statements, whether made by us or a third party, are based on our current plans, estimates and expectations and actual results may differ materially from those suggested by such forward-looking statements.

INTERNAL RISK FACTORS

BUSINESS RELATED RISKS

- 1. We are substantially dependent upon customers renewing their subscriptions to, and expanding their use of, our platform to maintain and grow our revenue, which requires us to scale our platform infrastructure and business quickly enough to meet our customers' growing needs. If we are not able to grow in an efficient manner, our business, financial condition and results of operations could be harmed.

As usage of our platform grows and as customers use it for more complex projects, we may need to devote additional resources to improving our platform architecture, updating our platform's products and functionality, integrating with third-party systems and maintaining infrastructure performance. In addition, we will need to appropriately scale our internal business as well as grow our partner services network to serve our growing customer base, particularly as our customer base expands over time. Our ability to scale our business is dependent on our ability to maintain and grow our revenue through new and renewed customer subscriptions to our platform, from which we derive substantially all of our revenue. We cannot assure you that we will be able to renew subscriptions with any of our customers at the same or higher contract value. In addition, some customers have multiple order forms with different divisions of their entities, which could increase the complexity of negotiating renewals.

The market for customer engagement products is still evolving, and competitive dynamics may cause our pricing to change as the market matures and as existing and new market participants introduce new types of products and different approaches to enable customers to address their needs. As a result, we may be forced to reduce the prices we charge for our subscriptions and may be required to offer terms less favorable to us for new and renewal agreements, particularly for mid- to large-size enterprises that may demand substantial price discounts as part of the negotiation of subscription contracts. Further, some of our contracts limit the amount we can increase prices from period to period or include pricing guarantees. If our customers do not renew their agreements, require pricing concessions, terminate their agreements as a result of a change of control or otherwise, renew their agreements on terms less favorable to us or fail to purchase additional product subscriptions, our revenue may decline, and as a result our ability to scale our business may be impaired and our business, financial condition and results of operations would likely be harmed as a result.

Any failure of or delay in efforts to scale our business could cause difficulty or delay in deploying our products or functionality to customers, could lead to impaired performance, other declines in quality or customer satisfaction, increased costs, difficulty in introducing new features or other operational inefficiencies or failures. These issues could reduce the attractiveness of our platform to customers, resulting in decreased subscriptions with existing and new customers, lower subscription renewal rates, the issuance of service credits or requests for refunds, which could hurt our revenue growth and our reputation. Even if we can upgrade our systems and expand our staff, any such expansion will be expensive and complex, requiring management time and attention, as well as improvements to our operational and financial controls and reporting systems and procedures. Because of these risks and other inherent risks associated with upgrading, improving and expanding our information technology systems, any needed expansion and improvements to our infrastructure and systems may not be fully or effectively implemented on a timely basis, if at all. Any such expansion efforts may reduce revenue or may not bring the benefits we anticipate, and our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

- 2. We are dependent on a small set of products, and the failure to achieve continued market acceptance of our products could cause our results of operations to suffer.

Substantially all of our revenue is attributable to subscriptions for our products and services provided by us. We expect that we will be substantially dependent on these products to generate revenue for the foreseeable future. As a result, our results of operations could suffer due to:

- any decline in demand for our products;
- the failure of our products to achieve continued market acceptance;
- the market for our products not continuing to grow, or growing more slowly than we expect;
- the introduction of products and technologies that serve as a replacement or substitute for, or represent an improvement over, our products;
- technological innovations or new standards that our products do not address;
- sensitivity to current or future prices offered by us or our competitors;

- our inability to release enhanced versions of our products on a timely basis;
- the development of new communication channels with which we are not able to adequately integrate our products; and
- changes to mobile devices and platforms that prevent or degrade the functionality of our products, or our inability to maintain interoperability of our products with such mobile devices and platforms.

If the market for our products grow more slowly than anticipated or if demand for our products does not grow as quickly as anticipated, whether as a result of competition, pricing sensitivities, product obsolescence, technological change, unfavorable economic conditions, uncertain geopolitical environment, budgetary constraints of our customers or other factors, we may not be able to grow our revenue, and our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

We are constantly innovating and investing in our products to ensure that they stay ahead of competing products with respect to features, functionalities, ease of use, scalability etc. Our deep domain expertise and patented technology assist us significantly on this front.

3. If our platform fails to perform properly or there are defects or disruptions in the rollout of our platform updates or enhancements, our reputation could be adversely affected, our market share could decline, and we could be subject to liability claims.

Our platform is inherently complex and may contain material defects or errors. Any defects or errors that impact functionality or that cause interruptions in the availability of our platform could result in:

- loss or delayed market acceptance and subscriptions;
- breach of warranty claims;
- breach of contract claims;
- sales credits or refunds for prepaid amounts;
- loss of customers;
- diversion of development and support resources; and
- injury to our reputation.

The costs we would be forced to incur to correct any material defects or errors could be substantial and could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our customer agreements often provide service level commitments on a monthly basis. If we are unable to meet the stated service level commitments or suffer extended periods of unavailability of our platform, we may be contractually obligated to provide these customers with service credits or we could face contract terminations. We outsource substantially all the infrastructure relating to our cloud-based platform to third-party hosting providers and, as a result, our services may be impacted in the future, and have been impacted in the past, by unscheduled downtime at such providers that is beyond our control. Our revenue could be significantly affected if we suffer unscheduled downtime that exceeds the allowed downtimes under our agreements with our customers.

Because of the large amount of data that we collect, process, transmit, store and manage, it is possible that hardware failures or errors in our systems could result in data loss or cause the information that we collect to be incomplete which may result in breach of contract claims, damage our reputation or subject us to regulatory fines or investigations. Furthermore, the availability or performance of our platform could be adversely affected by a number of factors outside our control, including customers' inability to access the internet, the failure of software systems caused by our third-party vendors, security breaches, cyberattacks or variability in user traffic for our services. For example, our customers access our platform through their internet service providers. If a customer's service provider fails to provide sufficient capacity to support our platform or otherwise experiences service outages, such failure could interrupt our customers' access to our platform and adversely affect their perception of our platform's reliability. In addition to potential liability, if we experience interruptions in the availability of our cloud-based platform, our reputation could be adversely affected, and we could lose customers or have difficulty acquiring new customers.

We also provide frequent incremental releases of updates and functional enhancements to our platform. Despite extensive pre-release testing, such new versions occasionally contain undetected errors when first introduced or released. We have, from time to time, found errors in our platform, and new errors in our platform may be detected in the future. Since our customers use our products for important aspects of their business, any errors, defects, disruptions in our platform or other performance problems with our solutions could hurt our reputation and may damage our customers' businesses. If that occurs, some of our customers may delay or withhold payment to us, elect not to renew their subscriptions with us, make service credit claims, warranty claims or other claims against us, and we could lose future sales. The occurrence of any of these events could result in an increase in our bad debt expense, an increase in collection cycles for accounts receivable or a decrease in future revenue and earnings, or could cause us to incur the risk or expense of litigation.

4. Our sales cycle with large enterprise customers can be long and unpredictable, and our sales efforts require considerable time and expense.

The timing of our sales cycles with our large enterprise customers and related revenue recognition is difficult to predict because of the length and unpredictability of the sales cycle for these customers. Large enterprise customers may have a lengthy sales cycle for the evaluation and procurement of our platform. Any delays in our sales cycles may cause a delay between increasing operating expenses for such sales efforts and, upon successful sales, the generation of corresponding revenue. We are often required to spend significant time and resources to better educate our potential large enterprise customers and familiarize them with the platform. The length of our sales cycle for these customers, from initial evaluation to contract execution, is generally eight to ten months but can vary substantially and sometimes extend for over 12 months. Large enterprise customers often view a subscription to our platform and products as a strategic decision with significant investment. As a result, customers frequently require considerable time to evaluate, test and qualify our platform prior to entering into or expanding a subscription. During the sales cycle, we expend significant time and money on sales and marketing and contract negotiation activities, which may not result in a sale. Additional factors that may influence the length and variability of our sales cycle include:

- the effectiveness of our sales team as we hire and train our new salespeople to sell to large enterprise customers;
- our ability to meet with customers in person during a sales cycle;
- the discretionary nature of purchasing and budget cycles and decisions;
- the obstacles placed by customers' procurement process;
- economic conditions and other factors impacting customer budgets;
- customers' familiarity with our products;
- customers' evaluation of competing products during the purchasing process; and
- evolving customer demands.

Given these factors, it is difficult to predict whether and when a sale will be completed. Consequently, a shortfall in demand for our products and services or a decline in new or renewed contracts in a given period may not significantly reduce our revenue for that period but could negatively affect our revenue in future periods, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

5. Our business depends on our ability to send consumer engagement messages, including emails, SMS and mobile and web notifications, and any significant disruption in service with our third-party providers or on mobile operating systems could result in a loss of customers or less effective consumer-brand engagement, which could harm our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our brand, reputation and ability to attract new customers depend on the reliable performance of our technology infrastructure and content delivery. Our platform engages with consumers through emails, SMS, mobile and web notifications. We are dependent on third-party services for delivery of emails and SMS, and we are dependent on Apple services and Google services for delivery of mobile and web notifications. Any incident broadly affecting the interaction of Apple or Android devices with necessary Apple or Google services (e.g., iCloud or Apple push notifications), including any delays or interruptions in such Apple or Google services, could adversely affect our business. Similarly, any cybersecurity events affecting Apple or Google Android devices could result in a disruption to Apple or Google services, regulatory investigations, reputational damage and a loss of sales and customers for Apple or Google, which could in turn impact our business. A prolonged disruption, cybersecurity event or any other negative event affecting Apple or Google could lead to customer dissatisfaction and could in turn damage our reputation with current and potential customers, expose us to liability and cause us to lose customers or otherwise harm our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We depend in part on mobile operating systems, such as Android and iOS, and their respective infrastructures to send notifications through various applications that utilize our platform. Any changes in such systems that negatively impact the functionality of our platform could adversely affect our ability to interact with consumers in a timely and effective fashion, which could adversely affect our ability to retain and attract new customers. For example, any anti-tracking features adopted by Apple or Google that require applications to obtain additional permissions to track end user data may impact our customers' decisions relating to how to interact with users on our platform. Additionally, if such mobile operating systems change their policies or otherwise limit or prohibit us from sending notifications or otherwise make changes that degrade the functionality of our platform, such changes could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

As new mobile devices and mobile, web and email platforms are released, there is no guarantee that these mobile devices and platforms will continue to support our platform or effectively roll out updates to our customers' applications. The parties that control the operating systems for mobile devices and mobile, web and email platforms have no obligation to test the interoperability of new mobile devices or platforms with our platform, and third parties may produce new products that are incompatible with or not optimal for the operation of our platform. Additionally, in order to deliver high-quality consumer engagement, we need to ensure that our platform is designed to work effectively with a range of mobile technologies, systems, networks and standards. If consumers choose to use products or platforms that do not support our platforms, or if we do not ensure our platform can work effectively with such products or platforms, our business and growth could be harmed. We also may not be successful in developing or maintaining relationships with key participants in the mobile industry that permit such interoperability. If we are unable to adapt to changes in popular operating systems, we expect that our customer retention and customer growth would be adversely affected.

6. We depend on our long term customers for a significant portion of our revenue, and any decrease in revenues or sales from any one of such key customers may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Our Company offers a comprehensive Customer Engagement Platform, i.e., mViva to its customers that empowers them to have customer-centric interactions with its end users. We are dependent upon our long term customers, which include large conglomerates and entities forming part of their group. The revenue from our top five and top ten customers during the preceding three Fiscals ended 2024, 2023 and 2022 is as under:

(₹ in lakhs)

Particulars	Fiscal 2024		Fiscal 2023		Fiscal 2022
	Amount	Percentage (%)	Amount	Percentage (%)	Amount	Percentage (%)
Top 5 customers	2,854.92	39.09	3,036.44	61.99	32,46.41	79.66
Top 10 customers	3,556.37	48.70	4,020.91	82.09	4,075.47	100.00

*Consolidated Figures are on the basis of a full year of 12 months for Pelatro India and from January 08, 2024 to March 31, 2024 for Pelatro Singapore and hence are not comparable. Refer to Proforma Consolidated Profit and Loss account for a full year consolidation impact.

Further, any decrease in the demand for our offerings from our long term customers, or a termination of our arrangements altogether, would adversely impact our results of operations, financial condition and cash flow. These customers may change their outsourcing strategy by moving more work in-house, replace us with our competitors. Also, these customers may demand price reductions and there is no assurance that we will be able to offset any reduction of prices to these customers with reductions in our costs or by acquiring new customers. The loss of one or more of these significant or key customers or a reduction in the amount of business we obtain from them could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. We cannot assure you that we will be able to maintain historic levels of business or that we will be able to significantly reduce customer concentration in the future.

7. If our Company or our Subsidiary are unable to protect its intellectual property, or if our Company infringes on the intellectual property rights of others, our business may be adversely affected. Further, our Company uses the patents registered in the name of our wholly owned subsidiary, Pelatro Pte. Ltd., therefore faces the risk of imposition of restriction in its usage.

In order to operate our Customer Engagement Platform, i.e., mViva, we use the patents registered in the name of our wholly owned Subsidiary, Pelatro Pte. Ltd. In order to maintain the uniqueness of our platform and to protect the code from being replicated, the code on which our platform runs has been patented through Pelatro Pte. Ltd. Further, the patents have been registered under the laws of USA and therefore are governed by the said laws. Additionally, as of date of this Prospectus, we have made applications for registering some of our patents with the concerned regulatory authorities, owing to which, as of date, we cannot seek protection for our technology under the laws of Singapore, and would have to rely on the contractual agreements executed with employees, vendors and customers. If our technology is used by one of our competitors and passed off as their own, we cannot assure you that we shall be successful in establishing claims of passing off against them on account of lack of protection under the laws of Singapore. We also cannot assure you that our patents will be registered in a timely manner or at all. Further, in the event, on account of unforeseen disputes or restrictions which may be promulgated under the laws of Singapore and USA, we are unable to use the intellectual properties in any of the jurisdictions where we operate, our expansion plans could be delayed and affected. Further, our Company has executed a software development services and distribution agreement dated January 1, 2020 with its Subsidiary, Pelatro Pte Ltd., for governing the terms and conditions of usage of the patents owned by Pelatro Pte Ltd. ("Agreement"). In accordance with the Agreement, either of the parties shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement upon the occurrence of any one or more of the following events: (a) if the counter party is adjudged as bankrupt or has made any assignment for the benefit of its creditors or take or attempt to take the benefit of any insolvency or bankruptcy legislation; (b) if a receiver, receiver manager or trustee is appointed over all or any part of the property of such other party. While, the agreement mandated our Subsidiary to pay undisputed amounts to our Company in the event of termination of the Agreement, however we cannot assure you that our Company will be able to use the patents developed by our Subsidiary, post such termination. Further, as of date we do not pay any fee to our Subsidiary for using the patents in accordance with the Agreement, in the event there takes place a shift of practice wherein a fee is charged to us for using the patents of our Subsidiary, payment of such recurring fee may have an adverse impact on our financial condition and results of operations. Further, in the event we wish to prosecute our Subsidiary for termination of the Agreement or restriction on usage of the Agreement, the Agreement states that the court of the Republic of Singapore shall have the jurisdiction to preside over such matters. Prosecuting our Subsidiary may result in increased costs, further such litigation could also be time taking and could adversely impact our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our current name and logo, is not owned or registered as a trade name or trademark by our Company under the provisions of the Trademarks Act, 1999 and therefore may be subject to counterfeiting or imitation which would adversely impact our reputation and lead to loss of customer confidence, reduced sales and higher administrative costs. Further, our Company does not enjoy the statutory protections accorded to a registered trademark. There can be no assurance that we will be able to register the trademark and the logo or that, third parties will not infringe our intellectual property, causing damage to our business prospects, reputation and goodwill. If any of our unregistered trademarks or proprietary rights are registered by a third party, we may not be able to make use of such trademark or proprietary rights in connection with our business and consequently, we may be unable to capitalize on the brand recognition associated with our Company. We can neither assure you that we would be successful in such a challenge nor guarantee that eventually our name and logo would be registered in our name under the provisions of the Trademarks Act, 1999. As a result, we may not be able to prevent acts of counterfeiting or imitation of our name and logo and a passing off action might not provide sufficient protection until such time that registration is granted.

In order to protect our proprietary technologies and processes, we also rely on the laws of Singapore and confidentiality agreements with our employees, vendors and others. Also, despite our efforts to protect our proprietary technology and trade secrets, unauthorized parties may attempt to misappropriate, copy, reverse engineer or otherwise obtain and use them. In addition, others may independently discover our trade secrets. Further, the contractual provisions that we enter into may not prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of our proprietary technology or intellectual property rights and may not provide an adequate remedy in the event of unauthorized use or disclosure of our proprietary technology or intellectual property rights. Moreover, policing unauthorized use of our technologies, trade secrets and intellectual property is difficult, expensive and time-consuming, particularly in countries where the laws may not be as protective of intellectual property rights as those in Singapore, and where mechanisms for enforcement of intellectual property rights may be weak. As we expand our activities outside of the India and Singapore, our exposure to unauthorized copying and use of our platform and proprietary information may increase. We may be unable to determine the extent of any unauthorized use or infringement of our platform, technologies or intellectual property rights. The steps that we take may not be adequate to protect our proprietary technology and intellectual property, others may develop or patent similar or superior technologies, products or services, or our trademarks, patents and other intellectual property may be challenged, invalidated or circumvented by others. Furthermore, effective trademark, patent, copyright and trade secret protection may not be available or commercially feasible in every country in which our software is available or where we have employees or independent contractors.

In order to protect our intellectual property rights, we may be required to spend significant resources to monitor and protect these rights. Litigation brought to protect and enforce our intellectual property rights could be costly, time-consuming and distracting to management. Furthermore, our efforts to enforce our intellectual property rights may be met with defenses, counterclaims and countersuits attacking the validity and enforceability of our intellectual property rights. Our failure to secure, protect and enforce our intellectual property rights could materially adversely affect our brand and business. An adverse determination of any litigation proceedings could put our intellectual property at risk of being invalidated or interpreted narrowly and could put our related patents, patent applications and trademark filings at risk of not issuing or being cancelled. Furthermore, because of the substantial amount of discovery required in connection with intellectual property litigation, some of our confidential or sensitive information could be compromised by disclosure in the event of litigation. Our inability to protect our proprietary technology against unauthorized copying or use, as well as any costly litigation or diversion of our management's attention and resources, could delay further sales or the implementation of our platform, impair the functionality of our platform, delay introductions of new functionality to our platform, result in our substituting inferior or more costly technologies into our platform or injure our reputation.

We will not be able to protect our intellectual property if we are unable to enforce our rights or if we do not detect unauthorized use of our intellectual property. If we fail to meaningfully protect our intellectual property and proprietary rights, our business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

8. We operate in limited geographies for a significant portion of our revenue and also depends on limited number of customers for our revenue from operations. Projects in new geographies may not be as profitable as in existing geographies.

Our customers are mainly in Asia and Africa. Exposure to projects in new geographies may not be as profitable as our current geographies.

The table below sets forth a break-up of the revenue earned by our Company across various regions during the preceding three Fiscals ended 2024, 2023 and 2022:

(₹ in lakhs)

Regions	FY 2024		FY 2023		FY 2022
	Value	%	Value	%	Value	%
Asia	47,48,51,816	65.02%	42,86,50,227	87.51%	38,11,84,029	93.53%
Africa	17,57,97,999	24.07%	1,66,22,648	3.39%	1,18,60,955	2.91%
Others	7,96,24,005	10.90%	4,40,24,913	9.10%	1,45,01,791	3.56%

Our geographic concentration may have a have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. Further, we derive a significant portion of our revenue from a limited number of customers. Our customers are large conglomerates, therefore a significant amount of revenue is earned from the holding and subsidiary companies of the same group, therefore a loss of any such customer could decrease our customer base to a large extent and significantly impact our business, results of operations and financial condition.

As our business is currently concentrated to a selected number of geographies, any adverse development with such customer, including as a result of a dispute with such major customers, may result in us experiencing significant reduction in our cash flows and liquidity. If our customers are able to fulfil their requirements through any of our existing or new competitors, with better services and / or cheaper cost, we may lose significant portion of our business.

9. Our Group Company, Pelatro Limited (U.K.) may have conflict of interest with us at it is engaged in similar business and may compete with us.

Our Group Company, Pelatro Limited (U.K.) is engaged in a similar line of business as that of our Company. In view of the same, there might be conflicts of interest in future. We have not entered into any non-compete agreements with our Group Company and there can be no assurance that our Group Company will not compete with our existing business or any future business that we might undertake or that we will be able to suitably resolve such a conflict without an adverse effect on our business and financial performance.

10. Our Subsidiary, Pelatro Pte. Ltd. may have conflict of interest with us as it is engaged in similar business and may compete with us.

Our Subsidiary, Pelatro Pte. Ltd. is engaged in a similar line of business as that of our Company. While, all the contracts executed by Pelatro Pte. Ltd. have been novated in favour of our Company, therefore we do not see any material conflict in the business of our Company and our Subsidiary. We cannot assure you that any conflict of interests will occur in the future. We have not entered into any non-compete agreements with our Subsidiary and there can be no assurance that our Subsidiary will not compete with our existing business or any future business that we might undertake or that we will be able to suitably resolve such a conflict without an adverse effect on our business and financial performance.

11. We may need to reduce prices or change our pricing model to remain competitive.

Our revenue is sourced from (i) licensing of our products to our customers, on payment of a recurring fee; (ii) offering services for managing the platform viz., business consulting, business operations and it operations; (iii) implementation and support by monitoring data, processing, communication and other activities to ensure smooth operation and offering L1 and L2 technical support for troubleshooting configuration related issues; and (iv) customization of services in the form of change requests to add specific features and capabilities. We expect that we may need to change our pricing from time to time. As new or existing competitors introduce products that compete with ours or reduce their prices, we may be unable to attract new customers or retain existing customers. We also must determine the appropriate price to enable us to compete effectively internationally. Customers may demand substantial price discounts as part of the negotiation of subscription agreements. As a result, we may be required or choose to reduce our prices or otherwise change our pricing model, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

12. We anticipate that our operations will continue to increase in complexity as we grow, which will create management challenges.

Our business has experienced growth and is complex. We expect this growth to continue and for our operations to become increasingly complex. To manage this growth, we continue to make substantial investments to improve our operational, financial and management controls as well as our reporting systems and procedures. We may not be able to implement and scale improvements to our systems and processes in a timely or efficient manner or in a manner that does not negatively affect our results of operations. For example, we may not be able to effectively monitor certain contract requirements for specific products. We may have difficulty managing improvements to our systems, processes and controls or in connection with third-party software, which could impair our ability to provide our platform to our customers, causing us to lose customers, limiting our platform to less significant updates or increasing our technical support costs. If we are unable to manage this complexity, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

As our customer base continues to grow, we will need to expand our services and other personnel, and maintain and enhance our partnerships, to provide a high level of customer service. We also will need to manage our sales processes as our sales personnel and partner network continue to grow and become more complex and as we continue to expand into new geographies and market segments. If we do not effectively manage this increasing complexity, the quality of our platform and customer service could suffer, and we may not be able to adequately address competitive challenges. These factors could impair our ability to attract and retain customers and expand our customers' use of our platform.

13. If we are unable to attract new customers and renew existing customers, our business, financial condition and results of operations will be adversely affected.

To increase our revenue, we must continue to attract new customers and retain, and sell more products to, existing customers. Our success will depend to a substantial extent on the widespread adoption of our platform and products as an alternative to existing products in which many enterprises have invested substantial personnel and financial resources and, therefore, may be reluctant or unwilling to abandon. In addition, as our market matures, our products evolve and competitors introduce lower cost or differentiated products that are perceived to compete with our platform, products and services, our ability to sell subscriptions for our products could be impaired. Similarly, our subscription sales could be adversely affected if customers or users within these organizations perceive that features incorporated into competitive products reduce the need for our products or if they prefer to purchase other products that are bundled with products offered by other companies that operate in adjacent markets and compete with our products. In addition, the value of our products and services to our customers depends, in part, on our customers' ability to use them as part of an overall effective marketing strategy. To the extent our customers' marketing strategies are not effective, they may reduce the use of our products and services or fail to renew their existing contracts. As a result of these and other factors, we may be unable to attract new customers, which may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

If we fail to adapt and respond effectively to rapidly changing technology, evolving industry standards, or changing regulations, or to changing customer or consumer needs, requirements or preferences, our platform may become less competitive. Our ability to attract new customers and increase revenue from existing customers depends in large part on our ability to enhance and improve our platform and its products and functionality, increase adoption and usage of our platform, and introduce new products and functionality. The market in which we compete is relatively new and subject to rapid technological change, evolving industry standards and changing regulations, as well as changing customer and consumer needs, requirements and preferences, including changes in the use of channels through which consumers desire to communicate with brands. The success of our business will depend, in part, on our ability to adapt and respond effectively to these changes on a timely basis. If we were unable to enhance our platform offerings to keep pace with rapid technological and regulatory change, or if new technologies emerge that are able to deliver competitive products at lower prices, more efficiently, more conveniently or more securely than our platform, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

14. The commercial success of our services depends to a large extent on the success of the success of our customers. If there is any downturn in the industries in which our customers operate, it could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our Company offers a comprehensive Customer Engagement Platform, i.e., mViva to its customers that empowers them to have customer-centric interactions with its end users. Our Company is significantly dependent on our customers engaged in telecom industry. The demand of our services is directly proportional to the demand of the products and/services of our customers and the success of their industry. Therefore the commercial success of our business is highly dependent on the commercial viability and success of our customers. Any downturn in the industries or the demand of the products or services of our customers, could have a direct impact on the demand of our services and our business operations. Any disturbance in the industry in which our customers operate could adversely impact our business due to our high dependence on our customers. Alternatively, in the event our customers are able to devise an in-house unit in relation to the services provided by our Company, or if our customers are able to find a cheaper alternative for our services, it may conversely result in a reduction in the demand of our services and have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

15. There are disciplinary actions taken against our Promoters in the past, any actions taken in the future may affect our business and financial condition.

The following disciplinary actions were taken by Securities and Exchange Board of India and Reserve Bank of India against our Promoters:

- a) The adjudicating officer of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (“AO”) passed an order dated September 29, 2020 (the “Order”), holding the off-market inter-se transfer made by our Promoter, Subash Menon and Kivar Holding Private Limited, in the scrip of Subex Limited violative of clause 6 of Code of Conduct under Schedule B of regulation 9(1) SEBI (Provision of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (“PIT Regulations, 2015”) and regulation 7(2)(a) of PIT Regulations, 2015. The AO noted that our Promoter, Subash Menon and Kivar Holding Private Limited an off-market inter-se transfer of 5,00,000 shares of Subex Limited between them on August 08, 2018, without pre-clearance from the designated compliance officer and failed to disclose the transaction. Accordingly, the AO pursuant to the Order imposed a penalty of ₹ 2,00,000/- (Rupees Two Lakh only) jointly severally on Subash Menon and Kivar Holding Private Limited under sections 15A(b) and 15HB of the SEBI Act, 1992 for violations of regulation 7(2)(a) of PIT Regulations, 2015 and provisions of clause 6 of the code of the conduct under Schedule B of regulation 9(1) of PIT Regulations, 2015.
- b) Our Promoters, Sudeesh Yezhuvath, Kiran Menon and Varun Menon have compounded contraventions committed under Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 before the Reserve Bank of India, including but not limited to (i) delayed submission of Form ODI Part I for reporting investment in an overseas wholly-owned subsidiary; (ii) remittance of funds to the wholly-owned subsidiary through non-designated AD, (iii) remittance of ODI funds mentioning incorrect purpose code (portfolio investment) while remitting funds for the wholly-owned subsidiary; (iv) non-repatriation of dues from the wholly-owned subsidiary within stipulated time; (v) disinvestment from the wholly-owned subsidiary by way of swap of shares, (vi) delayed submission of disinvestment proceeds, etc. Our Promoters have paid an aggregate penalty of ₹ 20.72 lakhs to the Reserve Bank of India, against eight compounding orders passed by the Reserve Bank of India in February 2022. The aforementioned matters have been concluded and are not pending as of date.

Further, two shareholders of Pelatro Limited (U.K.), namely, Sven Klass and Jan Regenbogen have issued a letter of claim dated August 24, 2024 to our Promoters, Subash Menon, Sudeesh Yezhuvath, Kiran Menon and Varun Menon alleging that the shareholding disposed by Pelatro Limited (U.K.) in our Company was at a value which was lesser than the value at which Equity Shares were transferred to our Promoters, Varun Menon and Kiran Menon. It was further alleged that the consent of the shareholders was not obtained in respect of the sale and the valuation undertaken. The legal counsel of Pelatro Limited (UK) has confirmed that our Company has ensured due compliance with the applicable laws in respect of the aforementioned transaction and accordingly has considered the claim untenable.

We cannot assure you that such actions will not be taken against our Promoters, Directors, Subsidiary or Group Company or that any such proceedings will be decided in their favour or that no further liability will arise out of these proceedings. We may incur significant expenses in such legal proceedings and we may have to make provisions in our financial statements, which could increase our expenses and liabilities. Any adverse decision may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled “Outstanding Litigations and Material Developments” beginning on page 267 of this Prospectus.

- 16. We depend on a few customers of our services in some of our business lines, for a significant portion of our revenue, and any decrease in revenues or sales from any one of our key customers may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

We offer customer engagement solutions through a Customer Engagement Platform, i.e., mViva to customers which are mainly engaged in the telecom industry. Our business operations are highly dependent on our customers in the telecom industry, and the loss of any of our customers which we cater to may adversely affect our sales and consequently on our business and results of operations. Further, we offer our services to large conglomerates which also include their subsidiaries and companies forming part of their group, therefore in the event we lose any of our customers, the entire group of companies that are associated with our main customer would also be lost, thereby significantly impacting our business, results of operations and financial condition. The details of our customer concentration during the preceding three years has been provided below:

Metrics	Fiscal 2024	Fiscal 2023	Fiscal 2022
Customer concentration – Top 1	18.38%	30.31%	29.85%
Customer concentration – Top 3	31.97%	49.51%	63.00%
Customer concentration – Top 5	39.09%	61.99%	79.66%
Customer concentration – Top 10	48.70%	82.09%	100.00%

Although, we have entered into formal agreements with a majority of our customers, however we cannot assure you that either of the parties will not terminate such agreement or breach any covenant of such agreements. Periodically we may have to discontinue business with certain customers, for reasons including delay in payments, among others. Our ability to terminate our arrangements with certain customers may be limited by the terms of our agreements with them. We may need to litigate our customers or litigations may be filed against us for any breach or termination of the contract, such litigation could be time consuming and costly and the outcome cannot be guaranteed. Further, the term of the contracts entered by our Company are for a specific period and are renewable at the end of the term, for additional periods, on terms mutually agreed between the parties, on expiry of such contracts, our Company or our customers may not renew the contracts. We cannot assure you that we will be able to continue to renew our agreements on terms that are commercially acceptable to us, or at all. We cannot assure you that such customers shall fulfil their obligations under such agreements entirely, or at all, shall not breach certain terms of their arrangements with us, including with respect to payment obligations or quality standards, or shall not choose to terminate their arrangements with our Company. Further, neither do we have any exclusive agents, dealers, distributors nor have we entered into any agreements with any of the market intermediaries for selling or marketing our services. If there occurs any change in the market conditions, requirements of our customers, or if we fail to identify and understand evolving industry trends, preferences or fail to meet our customers’ demands, it might have a direct impact on our revenue and customer base. The inability to procure new orders on a regular basis or at all may adversely affect our business, revenues, cash flows and operations.

- 17. We propose to use a part of the Net Proceeds of the Issue towards funding capital expenditure requirement of our Company towards purchase of hardware infra. We are yet to place orders for such hardware. Further, we plan to expand into new geographies through our Subsidiary and may be exposed to significant liability and could lose some or all of our investment in such regions, as a result of which our business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected

Our Company proposes to utilise an amount of upto ₹ 1,011.56 lakhs from Net Proceeds towards Purchase & Installation of IT equipment, computer hardware, server and other ancillary equipment. For further details, see “Objects of the Issue” on page 87. Our Company has also obtained third party quotations for purchasing hardware, however we are yet to place orders worth ₹ 1,011.56 lakhs, for purchase of such hardware. Further, the cost of the hardware is based on the quotations received from suppliers and such quotations are subject to change due to various factors such as, change in supplier of material, change in the government regulation and policies, change in management’s view of desirability of the current plans, possible cost overruns, etc. Since, our Company has not yet placed orders for the said material, we cannot assure that we will be able to procure the same in a timely manner and at the same price at which the quotations have been received. Delay in procurement of the same can compel our Company to buy such materials at a higher price, thus causing the budgeted cost to vary. As a result, our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects could be materially and adversely affected.

We intend to invest in sales and marketing in new geographies including, but not limited to EMEA and North America through our subsidiary in Singapore to the tune of ₹ 1,000.00 lakhs. Hiring and recruiting the intended manpower for this activity may require substantial investments and requisite training. The risks involved in entering new geographies and expanding operations in those areas, may be higher than expected. As we enter new locations, we will face competition from regional or national players, who may have an established local presence, and may be more familiar with local customers' design preferences, business practices and customs. By expanding into new geographical regions, we may be exposed to significant liability and could lose some or all of our investment in such regions, as a result of which our business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

18. One of our objects of the Issue is to expand our sales and marketing capabilities in geographies of EMEA and USA. The expenditure proposed to be incurred is subject to external factors and uncertainty of the outcome of such expenditure.

We intend to expand our sales and marketing capabilities in new geographies. Hiring and recruiting the intended manpower at different level for the expansion and development of our business activities may require substantial investments and requisite training. Our Board, by way of resolution passed in its meeting dated 18th June 2024 noted the requirement for an amount up to Rs. 1,000 Lacs proposed to be incurred and utilized as expenditure towards expansion of business across geographies by investing in our Subsidiary.

However, currently we have a limited direct presence in the EMEA and USA and have a limited operating history therein. Pursuant to the proposed investment, the expenditure for hiring new personnel and other related costs shall be undertaken by our Subsidiary, which may evolve from time to time depending on external factors such as increased demand for our products and solutions in the United States of America and EMEA, increase in taxes, exchange rates, attrition rates, rate of escalation, availability of technical staff, etc. Expenditure for hiring new personnel may be disproportionate to the revenue generated or customers acquired or retained. If customer conversion rates are not commensurate with our expenditure in this regard, our expenditure may be disproportionate to our returns on such investments. Further, the deployment of the Net Proceeds towards investment in our Subsidiary will lead to an indirect growth of the overseas business through our Subsidiary and in turn will not result in creation of a tangible asset for our Company.

Our Company shall be infusing funds in our Subsidiary, which may be a time taking process owing to external factors such as, compliance with Indian and foreign requirement for fund transfer, obtaining requisite licenses and approvals, etc. Any delay in complying with such regulatory requirements may delay the utilisation of Net Proceeds. Further, on account of such delay our estimate costs and the actual cost of investment may vary leading to shortfall which might have to be met with internal accruals and external borrowings.

Further, our Company also has not identified the manner of investment which shall be made in our Subsidiary and therefore we shall not be able to disclose the mode of investment which shall be made at this stage. Although, the modes of undertaking expenditure towards the proposed object has been identified, the outcome of the same is highly dependent upon the customer sentiment, acceptance and competitiveness of our products, ability to hire and retain skilled and technical staff and the effectiveness of our growth strategy to penetrate the overseas market. Therefore, the outcome of the proposed expenditure is not ascertainable or quantifiable at this stage. For details, see “Objects of the Issue” at page 87.

19. Failures in IT systems and infrastructure supporting our system and operations could significantly disrupt our operations and have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

Our business relies on the continued and uninterrupted performance of our software and hardware infrastructures. The success of our businesses depends on part upon our ability to effectively deploy, implement and use information technology systems and advanced technology initiatives in a cost effective and timely basis. Our computer networks may be vulnerable to unauthorised access, computer hacking, computer viruses, worms, malicious applications and other security problems caused by unauthorised access to, or improper use of, systems by our employ subcontractors or third-party vendors. Any systems failure or security breach or lapse on our part or on the part of our employees and other ecosystem participants that results in the release of user data could harm our operations and have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

20. Our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management Personnel have interests in our Company other than reimbursement of expenses incurred or normal remuneration or benefits.

Our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management Personnel, may be deemed to be interested in our Company, in addition to the regular remuneration or benefits, reimbursements of expenses, Equity Shares held by them or their relatives, their dividend or bonus entitlement, benefits arising from their directorship in our Company. Our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management Personnel may also be interested to the extent of any transaction entered into by our Company with any other company or firm in which they are directors or partners. For further details please refer to the paragraphs titled — “Interest of our Directors” in the chapter titled — “Our Management”, the paragraphs titled — “Interest of our Promoters and Other Interests and Disclosures” in the chapter titled — “Our Promoters and Promoter Group”, “Financial Indebtedness” and “Restated Financial Information” on pages 72, 75, 212 and 194, respectively of this Prospectus.

There can be no assurance that our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management Personnel will exercise their rights as shareholders to the benefit and best interest of our Company. Our Promoters and members of our Promoter Group will continue to exercise significant control over our Company, including being able to control the composition of our Board of Directors and determine decisions requiring simple or special majority voting of shareholders, and our other shareholders may be unable to affect the outcome of such voting. Our Directors and our Key Management Personnel may take or block actions with respect to our business, which may conflict with the best interests of our Company or that of minority shareholders.

21. If we fail to maintain and enhance our brand, our ability to expand our customer base may be impaired and our business, financial condition and results of operations may suffer.

We believe that maintaining and enhancing our brand is important to support the marketing and sale of our existing and future products to new customers and expand sales of our platform and products to existing customers. We also believe that the importance of brand recognition will increase as competition in our market increases. Successfully maintaining and enhancing our brand will depend largely on the effectiveness of our marketing efforts, our ability to provide reliable products that continue to meet the needs of our customers at competitive prices, our ability to maintain our customers’ trust, our ability to continue to develop new functionality and use cases, and our ability to successfully differentiate our products and platform capabilities from competitive products. Our brand promotion activities may not generate customer awareness or yield increased revenue and, even if they do, any increased revenue may not offset the expenses we incur in building our brand. If we fail to successfully promote and maintain our brand, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

If we fail to manage our growth effectively, we may be unable to execute our business plan, maintain high levels of service and customer satisfaction or adequately address competitive challenges. We may continue to experience rapid growth and organizational change, which may continue to place significant demands on our management and our operational and financial resources. We have also experienced growth in the number of customers, the number of engagements we enable and the amount of data that our infrastructure supports. In particular, acquiring and supporting enterprise customers can require significant resources due to their size, volume of messaging and complexity. Our success will depend in part on our ability to manage this growth effectively. We will require significant capital expenditures and valuable management resources to grow without undermining our culture of innovation, teamwork and attention to customer success, which has been central to our growth so far.

We intend to continue to expand our international operations in the future. Our expansion will continue to place a significant strain on our managerial, administrative, financial and other resources. If we are unable to manage our growth successfully, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected. It is important that we maintain a high level of customer services, integration services, technical support and satisfaction as we expand our business. As our customer base continues to grow and as our penetration with existing customers expands, we will need to expand our account management, customer service and other personnel. Failure to manage growth could result in difficulty or delays in launching our platform, declines in quality or customer satisfaction, increases in costs, difficulties in introducing new features, or other operational difficulties. Any of these could adversely impact our business, financial condition and results of operations.

22. Our current operations are international in scope, and we plan further geographic expansion. This will create a variety of operational challenges.

A component of our growth strategy involves the further expansion of our operations and customer base internationally. We currently have customers mainly in Asia, Africa and Middle East. We are continuing to adapt and develop strategies to address international markets, but such efforts may not be successful. We expect that our international activities will continue to grow over the foreseeable future as we continue to pursue opportunities in existing and new international markets. This will require significant management attention and financial resources. Our current international operations and future initiatives involve a variety of risks, including:

- changes in a country's or region's political or economic conditions;
- the need to adapt and localize our platform for specific countries;
- greater difficulty collecting accounts receivable and longer payment cycles;
- unexpected changes in laws, regulatory requirements, taxes or trade laws;
- more stringent regulations relating to privacy and data security and the unauthorized collection, processing, transmission or use of, or access to, commercial and personal information;
- differing labor regulations, where labor laws are generally more advantageous to employees including deemed hourly wage and overtime regulations in these locations;
- difficulties in managing a business in new markets with diverse cultures, languages, customs, legal systems, alternative dispute systems and regulatory systems;
- increased travel, real estate, infrastructure and legal compliance costs associated with international operations;
- currency exchange rate fluctuations and the resulting effect on our revenue and expenses and the cost and risk of entering into hedging transactions if we chose to do so in the future;
- laws and business practices favoring local competitors or general preferences for local vendors;
- limited or insufficient intellectual property protection or difficulties enforcing our intellectual property;
- political instability or terrorist activities;
- related restrictions on our ability and our customers' ability to travel; and
- adverse tax burdens and foreign exchange controls that could make it difficult to repatriate earnings and cash.

Failure to overcome any of these difficulties could negatively affect our results of operations. If we invest substantial time and resources to expand our international operations and are unable to do so successfully, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

23. We are subject to stringent and changing laws and regulations, industry standards and contractual obligations related to privacy, data security and data protection. The restrictions and costs imposed by these requirements and our actual or perceived failure to comply with them, could harm our business.

Operating our business and platform involves the collection, use, processing, storage, transfer and sharing of sensitive, proprietary, confidential, regulated and personal information, including such information that we handle on behalf of our customers. These activities are regulated by a variety of federal, state, local and foreign privacy, data security and data protection laws and regulations, and industry standards, which have become increasingly stringent in recent years, are rapidly evolving and are likely to remain uncertain for the foreseeable future. Increasingly, privacy, data security and data protection laws are extra-territorial in their scope of application. As a provider of cloud computing services, the global nature of our customer base renders us particularly exposed to being subject to a wide range of such laws and the varying, potentially conflicting compliance obligations they impose on our business.

Apart from the requirements of privacy and data security laws, we have obligations relating to privacy and data security under certain of our contracts. Although we endeavor to comply with these obligations, we may have failed to do so in the past and may be subject to allegations that we have failed to do so or have otherwise processed data improperly. Such failures or alleged failures could result in proceedings against us by governmental entities, private parties or others as well as negative publicity and reputational damage. In addition, privacy advocates and industry groups have regularly proposed, and may propose in the future, self-regulatory standards with which we must legally comply or that contractually apply to us. If we fail to follow these security standards even if no customer information is compromised, we may incur significant fines, negative publicity and reputational damage or experience a significant increase in costs. Compliance with these and other applicable privacy, data security or data protection laws, regulations, policies and standards, many of which vary across jurisdictions, is a rigorous and time-intensive process, and we may be required to implement costly mechanisms to ensure compliance. The proliferation of privacy, data security and data protection laws, regulations, policies and standards increases the likelihood of differences in approaches across jurisdictions, which makes it difficult, and in some instances, impossible, to maintain a standardized global privacy program. Creating jurisdiction specific approaches requires significant time and resources and the associated complexity increases the risk of potential non-compliance.

Our customers may implement compliance measures that do not align with our services, which could limit the scope and type of services we are able to provide. Our customers may also require us to comply with additional privacy and security obligations, causing us to incur potential disruption and expense related to our business processes. We may also be exposed to certain compliance and/or reputational risks if our customers do not comply with applicable privacy or data protection laws and/or their own privacy notices and terms of use in particular in connection with their processing of personal data, their sharing of personal data with us, the legal bases they rely on (where applicable) under applicable privacy and data protection legislation for the processing we carry out on their behalf and/or their management of data subject requests which pertain to the processing we carry out on their behalf. In addition, we may decide not to enter into new geographic markets where we determine that compliance with such laws, regulations, policies and standards would be prohibitively costly or difficult. Geographic markets in which we currently operate could require us to process or store regulated information within such markets only, and establishing hosting facilities in such markets could be disruptive to our business and costly. If our policies and practices, or those of our customers, service providers, contractors and/or partners, are, or are perceived to be non-compliant, we could face (1) litigation, investigations, audits, inspections and proceedings brought by governmental entities, customers, individuals or others; (2) additional reporting requirements and/or oversight, temporary or permanent bans on all or some processing of personal data, orders to destroy or not use personal data and imprisonment of company officials; (3) fines and civil or criminal penalties for us or company officials, obligations to cease offering or to substantially modify our solutions in ways that make them less effective in certain jurisdictions; and (4) negative publicity, harm to our brand and reputation and reduced overall demand for our platform. Such occurrences could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

24. Our Promoter, Sudeesh Yezhuvath has extended personal guarantees with respect to loan facilities availed by our Company. Further, he has also extended personal properties as collateral for securing the facilities availed by our Company. Revocation of any or all of these personal guarantees or withdrawal of such properties may adversely affect our business operations and financial condition.

Our Promoter, Sudeesh Yezhuvath has extended personal guarantees in favour of certain banks with respect to the loan facilities availed by our Company from them. Sudeesh Yezhuvath has provided his personal property as collateral for securing the loans availed by our Company. In the event any of these guarantees are revoked, our lenders may require us to furnish alternate guarantees or an additional security or may demand a repayment of the outstanding amounts under the said facilities sanctioned or may even terminate the facilities sanctioned to us. There can be no assurance that our Company will be able to arrange such alternative guarantees in a timely manner or at all. In the event if the personal property of our Promoter is withdrawn, our lenders may require us to furnish alternate properties or may demand a repayment of the outstanding amounts under the said facilities sanctioned or may even terminate the facilities sanctioned to us. There can be no assurance that our Company will be able to arrange such alternative properties in a timely manner or at all. If the properties are withdrawn, the ability of our Company to continue its business operations could be adversely affected. If our lenders enforce these restrictive covenants or exercise their options under the relevant debt financing agreements, our operations and use of assets may be significantly hampered and lenders may demand the payment of the entire outstanding amount and this in turn may also affect our further borrowing abilities thereby adversely affecting our business and operations.

25. Security incidents, privacy breaches or real or perceived errors, failures or bugs in our systems, networks, cloud environments, website could impair our operations, result in loss of personal customer confidential information, damage our reputation and brand, and harm our business and operating results.

Our continued success is dependent on our systems, applications, and software continuing to operate and to meet the changing needs of our customers and users. A significant decline in the performance, reliability, security, or availability of our systems, networks, software, or services may harm our reputation, impair our ability to operate, retain existing customers or attract new customers, affect the market's perception of our security measures and expose us to legal claims and government action, each of which could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations, and growth prospects. We rely on our technology and engineering staff and vendors to successfully implement changes to and maintain our systems and services in an efficient and secure manner. Like all information systems and technology, our website may contain material errors, failures, vulnerabilities or bugs, particularly when new features or capabilities are released, and may be subject to computer viruses or malicious code, break-ins, phishing impersonation attacks, attempts to overload our servers with denial-of-service or other attacks, ransomware and similar incidents or disruptions from unauthorized use of our computer systems, as well as unintentional incidents causing data leakage, any of which could lead to interruptions, delays or website shutdowns, or could cause loss of critical data, or the unauthorized disclosure, access, acquisition, alteration or use of personal or other confidential information. In addition, we may be required to expend significant resources to protect against the threat of these security breaches or to alleviate problems caused by these breaches. Furthermore, organizations generally, and insurers, in particular, due to the amount of sensitive data they hold, remain vulnerable to highly targeted attacks aimed at exploiting network specific applications or weaknesses. Hackers are increasingly using powerful new tactics including evasive applications, proxies, tunneling, encryption techniques, vulnerability exploits, buffer overflows, denial of service attacks, or distributed denial of service (“DDoS”) attacks, botnets and port scans. If we are unable to avert a DDoS or other attack for any significant period, we could sustain substantial revenue loss from lost sales due to the downtime of critical systems. We may not have the resources or technical sophistication to anticipate, detect or prevent rapidly evolving types of cyber-attacks. Cyber-attacks may target us, our customers, our distribution partners, banks, credit card processors, delivery services, e-commerce in general or the communication infrastructure on which we depend. Since we use cloud environments for various applications, we store and transmit large amounts of sensitive, confidential, personal and proprietary information over public communications networks. The shared, on-demand nature of cloud computing introduces the possibility of new security breaches, in addition to the threats faced by traditional corporate networks. Due to the vast amount of data stored on cloud servers, cloud providers have become an attractive target for cyberattacks. Though cloud providers deploy security controls to protect their cloud environments, if they fail in protecting our confidential information, it may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, reputation and prospects.

If we experience compromises to our security that result in technology performance, integrity, or availability problems, the complete shutdown of our website or the loss or unauthorized disclosure, access, acquisition, alteration or use of confidential information, customers may lose trust and confidence in us, and customers may decrease the use of our website or our online app, or stop using our website entirely. Further, outside parties may attempt to fraudulently induce employees or customers to disclose sensitive information in order to gain access to our information or customers’ information. Because the techniques used to obtain unauthorized access, disable or degrade service, or sabotage systems change frequently, often they are not recognized until launched against a target, and may originate from less regulated and remote areas around the world, we may be unable to proactively address these techniques or to implement adequate preventative measures. Even if we take steps that we believe are adequate to protect us from cyber threats, hacking against our competitors or other companies could create the perception among our customers or potential customers that our digital platform is not safe to use. In addition, our business depends heavily on the ability of our information technology systems to timely process a large number of policies written across numerous products. The proper functioning of our financial controls, accounting, customer database, customer service and other data processing systems, together with the communications systems and main information technology centres, is critical to our operations and to our ability to compete effectively. Our business activities would be materially disrupted in the event of technology downtime, slow response times, and a partial or complete failure or disruption of any of these information technologies or communications systems. These failures could be caused by, among others, hardware failure, software program errors, computer virus attacks, internet failure, conversion errors due to system upgrading or system relocation, failure to successfully implement ongoing information technology initiatives, human errors, natural disasters, war, terrorist attacks, blackouts and unanticipated problems at our existing and future facilities. While we have backup systems and contingency plans for critical aspects of our operations and business processes, certain other non-critical systems are not fully redundant and our disaster recovery or business continuity planning may not be sufficient. Remediation of any disruptions in our information technology systems may be costly and we do not have insurance to cover such costs. Furthermore, we may update our information technology systems and introduce new information technology systems from time to time. Enhancing infrastructure to attain improved stability and redundancy may be costly and time consuming, and may require resources and expertise that are difficult to obtain, such that our infrastructure may not be improved in a timely manner or at all, even if deficiencies are identified. However, delays, system failures or other accidents may occur during such system upgrades or introduction of new systems. In addition, the upgraded or new information technology systems may not be able to achieve the projected processing capacity and availability, and may also not be able to meet the needs of our business scale, complexity and growth in the future. Our failure to address these problems promptly, including any delay in the implementation of any upgraded or new information systems, could result in our inability to perform, or prolonged delays in performing, critical business operational functions, the loss of key business data, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

26. There have been instances of delays in filings of certain forms which were required to be filed as per the reporting requirements under the Companies Act, 2013 to RoC.

In the past, there have been certain instances of delays in filing statutory forms which have been subsequently filed by payment of an additional fee as specified by RoC. No show cause notice in respect to the above has been received by our Company till date and no penalty or fine has been imposed by any regulatory authority in respect to the same. It cannot be assured, that there will not be such instances in the future or our Company will not commit any further delays in relation to its reporting requirements, or any penalty or fine will not be imposed by any regulatory authority in respect to the same. The happening of such event may cause a material effect on our results of operations and financial position.

28. There can be no assurance that the objects of the Issue will be achieved within the time frame anticipated or at all, or that the deployment of the Net Proceeds in the manner intended by us will result in any increase in the value of your investment. Further, the plan for deployment of the Net Proceeds has not been appraised by any bank or financial institution.

Our Company intends to use approximately the Net Proceeds towards the objects disclosed in the chapter titled “Objects of the Issue” on page 87 of this Prospectus. Our Board will have flexibility in temporarily investing the Net Proceeds as well as its inter se allocation across various heads, as disclosed in the section titled “Objects of the Issue”. Further, the plans for deployment of the Net Proceeds are in accordance with our management’s estimates and have not been appraised by any bank, financial institution or any other external agency. Whilst a Monitoring Agency will be appointed for monitoring utilization of the Gross Proceeds, the proposed utilization of Gross Proceeds is based on our current business plan, management estimates, prevailing market conditions and other commercial considerations, which are subject to change and may not be within the control of our management. Based on the competitive nature of our industry, we may have to revise our business plan and/ or management estimates from time to time and consequently our funding requirements may also change.

In case of any shortfall of the proceeds raised from this Issue, there can be no assurance that we will be able to raise the funds through other sources to meet our obligations of meeting equity contribution for our proposed unit. In case of shortfall in the proceeds of this Issue which are to be utilized for meeting the objects of the Issue, the shortfall will be met by such means as are available to our Company at such future time and at the discretion of the management, including by way of cash available with us or by any other means permissible under law. We cannot assure that we will be able to arrange for adequate cash or will be able to procure further loans to meet the funding requirements. Any failure to meet the additional funding requirements will have a material adverse effect on the implementation of the proposed unit.

We may also be required to adhere to certain restrictive covenants as regards raising of finance for the unit from means other than those sanctioned under our present financing documents. Any failure or delay on our part to raise funds from the Issue or any shortfall in the Issue proceeds and subsequent inability of our Company to source alternate means of finance may delay the implementation of our project and could adversely affect our growth plans.

29. Our Company had negative cash flows in the past years, details of which are given below. Sustained negative cash flow could impact our growth and business.

We have experienced negative cash flows in the past which have been set out below:

Particulars	For the year ended March 31, 2024 (Consolidated)	For the year ended March 31, 2024 (Standalone)	For the year ended March 31, 2023 (Standalone)	For the year ended March 31, 2022 (Standalone)
Net Cash from Operating Activities	2,502.04	374.35	(280.94)	96.09
Net Cash from Investing Activities	(2,339.22)	(374.59)	(64.41)	(50.31)
Net Cash used in Financing Activities	138.11	(20.13)	388.51	(48.08)

Cash flow of a company is a key indicator to show the extent of cash generated from operations to meet its capital expenditure, pay dividends, repay loans, and make new investments without raising finance from external resources. Such negative cash flows lead to a net decrease in cash and cash equivalents. Any negative cash flow in future could adversely affect our operations and financial conditions and the trading price of our Equity Shares. For further details, please refer “Financial Statements” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” on pages 194 and 255, respectively.

30. If we are not able to obtain, renew or maintain our statutory and regulatory licenses, registrations and approvals required to operate our business, it may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We require certain statutory and regulatory licenses, registrations and approvals to operate our business some of which are granted for a fixed period of time and need to be renewed from time to time. Further, in future, we may also be required to obtain new licenses, registrations and approvals for any proposed operations, including any expansion of existing operations. There can be no assurance that the relevant authorities will renew such licenses, registrations and approvals in a timely manner or at all. Further, these licenses, registrations and approvals are subject to several conditions, and our Company cannot assure that it shall be able to continuously meet such conditions or be able to prove compliance with such conditions to statutory authorities, and this may lead to cancellation, revocation or suspension of relevant licenses, approvals and registrations. We may be subject to penalties or suffer a disruption in our business activities, any of which could adversely affect our results of operations. Further, our Company will be responsible for bearing any and all liabilities arising out of this non-compliance. If we are unable to renew, maintain or obtain the required registrations or approvals, it may result in the interruption of our operations and may have a material adverse effect on our revenues and operations. Failure by our Company to renew, maintain or obtain the required licenses or approvals, or cancellation, suspension, or revocation of any of the licenses, approvals and registrations may result in the interruption of our Company’s operations and may have a material adverse effect on our business. For further details on the licenses obtained by our Company and licenses for which renewal applications have been made, kindly refer the chapter titled “Government and Other Approvals” beginning on page 273 of this Prospectus.

31. Any delays and/or defaults in payments could result in increase of working capital investment and/or reduction of our Company’s profits, thereby affecting our operation and financial condition.

We are exposed to payment delays and/or defaults by our customers. Our financial position and financial performance are dependent on the creditworthiness of our customers. Such delays in payments may require our Company to make a working capital investment. We cannot assure you that payments from all or any of our customers will be received in a timely manner or to that extent will be received at all. If a customer defaults in making its payments on a subscription on which we have invested significant resources, or if an order in which our Company has invested significant resources is delayed, cancelled or does not proceed to completion, it could have a material adverse effect on our Company's results of operations and financial condition. There is no guarantee on the timeliness of all or any part of our customers' payments and whether they will be able to fulfil their obligations, which may arise from their financial difficulties, deterioration in their business performance, or a downturn in the global economy. If such events or circumstances occur, our financial performance and our operating cash flows may be adversely affected.

32. Our Company requires significant amount of working capital for a continuing growth. Our inability to meet our working capital requirements may adversely affect our results of operations.

Our business requires a significant amount of working capital. In the event, we are unable to source the required amount of working capital for addressing an increased demand of our services, we might not be able to efficiently satisfy the demand of our customers. Even if we are able to source the required amount of funds, we cannot assure you that such funds would be sufficient to meet our cost estimates and that any increase in the expenses will not affect the price of our services.

On the basis of the existing working capital requirement of our Company, please see below the details of our working capital requirements in the preceding three years:

	outstanding Trade Receivables (calculated as closing trade receivables divided by Net sales from operations over no. of days in reporting period i.e. 365 days) were ~62 days for Fiscal 2022, ~139 days for Fiscal 2023, ~224 days for Fiscal 2024. Going forward, as the business cycle will improve as we are coming out of the gestation period of our product, stabilized scenario and the long-term sustainable business relationship built with customers we are envisaging ~150 days in the Fiscal 2025 and ~110 days in the Fiscal 2026 considering a faster turnaround of receivables as we grow coupled with recurring and re-occurring revenue cycle for our product.
Trade Payables	Being an IT Company, we do not have any creditors related to material purchase.

Further, one of the objects of this Issue include funding of working capital requirements of our Company, which is based on management estimates and certain assumptions. For more information in relation to such management estimates and assumptions, please see “Objects of the Issue” on page 87. Our working capital requirements may be subject to change due to factors beyond our control including force majeure conditions, an increase in defaults by our customers, non-availability of funding from banks or financial institutions. Accordingly, such working capital requirements may not be indicative of the actual requirements of our Company in the future and investors are advised to not place undue reliance on such estimates of future working capital requirements.

Any delay in processing our payments by our customers may increase our working capital requirement. Further, if a customer defaults in making payments on subscriptions, on which we have devoted significant resources, it could affect our profitability and liquidity and decrease the capital reserves that are otherwise available for other uses. We may file a claim for compensation of the loss that we incurred pursuant to such defaults but settlement of disputes generally takes time and financial and other resources, and the outcome is often uncertain. In general, we take provisions for bad debts, including those arising from such defaults based primarily on ageing and other factors such as special circumstances relating to special customers. There can be no assurance that such payments will be remitted by our clients to us on a timely basis or that we will be able to effectively manage the level of bad debt arising from defaults. We may also have large cash outflows, including among others, losses resulting from environmental liabilities, litigation costs, adverse political conditions, foreign exchange risks and liability claims.

All of these factors may result in increase in the amount of receivables and short-term borrowings. If we decide to raise additional funds through the incurrence of debt, our interest and debt repayment obligations will increase, and could have a significant effect on our profitability and cash flows and we may be subject to additional covenants, which could limit our ability to access cash flows from operations. Any issuance of equity, on the other hand, could result in a dilution of your shareholding. Accordingly, continued increases in our working capital requirements may have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

33. We face intense competition, including from well-established companies that offer products that compete with ours. We may lack sufficient financial or other resources to maintain or improve our competitive position, which may harm our ability to add new customers, retain existing customers, and grow our business.

The market for customer engagement products is evolving and highly competitive. There are several established and emerging competitors that address specific aspects of customer engagement. We face intense competition from software companies that offer marketing solutions, such as legacy marketing clouds like Adobe etc. Many of our existing competitors have, and our potential competitors could have, substantial competitive advantages, such as greater name recognition, longer operating histories, larger sales and marketing budgets and resources, greater customer support resources, lower labor and development costs, larger and more mature intellectual property portfolios and substantially greater financial, technical and other resources than we do. In addition, our competitors may have an advantage in markets where our policies regarding the use of customer data are more restrictive than local laws, regulations, policies and standards. For example, competitors willing to sell customer data in markets where such activity is permissible may have a pricing advantage over us in such markets. Any such pricing advantages that our competitors have may negatively affect our ability to gain new customers and retain existing customers. With the introduction of new technologies and the entry of new competitors into the market, we expect competition to persist and intensify in the future. In addition, merger and acquisition activity in the technology industry could increase the likelihood that we compete with other large technology companies. This could harm our ability to increase sales, maintain or increase subscription renewals, and maintain our prices.

Conditions in our market could change rapidly and significantly as a result of technological advancements, partnering by our competitors or continuing market consolidation. Some of our larger competitors also have substantially broader product lines and market focus and therefore may not be as susceptible to downturns in a particular market. New start-up companies that innovate, and large companies that are making significant investments in research and development, may invent similar or superior products and technologies that compete with one or more of our platform offerings. In addition, some of our competitors may enter into new alliances with each other or may establish or strengthen cooperative relationships with agency partners, technology and application providers in complementary categories, or other parties. Competitors may also consolidate with existing service providers or strategic partners that we rely on, and as a result we could lose partnerships that are difficult to replace. Any such consolidation, acquisition, alliance or cooperative relationship could lead to pricing pressure, a loss of market share or a smaller addressable share of the market and could result in a competitor with greater financial, technical, marketing, service and other resources, all of which could harm our ability to compete.

Some of our larger competitors may use their broader product offerings to compete with us, including by bundling their competitive products with other products being purchased from that company by a customer or by restricting access to their technology platforms thereby making it more difficult for customers to integrate the use of our platform with other competitor products. Potential customers may prefer to purchase from their existing suppliers rather than a new supplier regardless of product performance or features. Furthermore, potential customers may be more willing to incrementally add solutions to their existing infrastructure from competitors than to replace their existing infrastructure with our platform and products. These competitive pressures in our market, or our failure to compete effectively, may result in price reductions, fewer sales, reduced revenue and gross margins, increased net losses and loss of, or failure to expand, our market share. Any failure to address these challenges could harm our business, financial condition and results of operations.

34. Our Proforma Financial Statements are illustrative in nature and have not been prepared in accordance with accounting or other standards and practices generally accepted in any jurisdiction and accordingly should not be relied upon as if they had been prepared in accordance with those standards and practices.

In order to give potential investors a better understanding of what the consolidated results of operations for our Company and the business of our Subsidiary, Pelatro Pte. Ltd. would have been had we been operating as one group for all of Fiscal 2024, we have prepared the unaudited proforma combined statement of profit and loss for the year ended March 31, 2024 for illustrative purposes, which gives effect to the acquisition of Pelatro Pte. Ltd. as if they occurred on April 1, 2023. For details, see “Financial Statements” on page 194.

The Proforma Financial Statements are illustrative in nature and have not been prepared in accordance with accounting or other standards and practices generally accepted in any jurisdiction and accordingly should not be relied upon as if they had been prepared in accordance with those standards and practices. Accordingly, the degree of reliance placed by investors on such proforma information should be limited. In addition, the rules and regulations related to the preparation of proforma financial information in any jurisdiction may also vary significantly from the basis of preparation as set out in our notes to the Proforma Financial Statements. The Proforma Financial Statements have been prepared on the basis of the assumptions set forth in the notes to the Proforma Financial Statements. The Proforma Financial Statements addresses a hypothetical situation and do not represent our actual consolidated or combined financial results and is not intended to be indicative of our future results of operations. As the Proforma Financial Statements are prepared for illustrative purposes only, it is, by its nature, subject to change and may not give an accurate picture of the actual financial results of operations that would have occurred had such transactions by us been effected on the dates they are assumed to have been effected, and is not intended to be indicative of our future financial results of operations. In addition, if the various assumptions underlying the preparation of the Proforma Financial Statements do not come to pass, our actual results could be materially different from those indicated in the Proforma Financial Statements. Accordingly, the Proforma Financial Statements are illustrative only and should not be taken as an indication of our future results of operation, financial condition or cash flows.

35. Our Promoters and members of the Promoter Group have significant control over the Company and have the ability to direct our business and affairs; their interests may conflict with your interests as a shareholder.

Upon completion of this Issue, our Promoters and members of our Promoter Group will collectively hold 53.59% of the Equity share capital of our Company. As a result, our Promoters will have the ability to exercise significant influence over all matters requiring shareholders’ approval. Accordingly, our Promoters will continue to retain significant control, including being able to control the composition of our Board of Directors, determine decisions requiring simple or special majority voting of shareholders, undertaking sale of all or substantially all of our assets, timing and distribution of dividends and termination of appointment of our officers, and our other shareholders may be unable to affect the outcome of such voting. There can be no assurance that our Promoters will exercise their rights as shareholders to the benefit and best interests of our Company. Further, such control could delay, defer or prevent a change in control of our Company, impede a merger, consolidation, takeover or other business combination involving our Company, or discourage a potential acquirer from making a tender offer or otherwise attempting to obtain control of our Company even if it is in our Company's best interest. The interests of our Promoters could conflict with the interests of our other equity shareholders, and our Promoters could make decisions that materially and adversely affect your investment in the Equity Shares.

36. The average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares held by our Promoters could be lower than the Issue Price.

Our Promoters' average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares in our Company may be lower than the Issue Price which is proposed to be determined through book building mechanism. For further details regarding average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters in our Company and build-up of Equity Shares by our Promoters in our Company, please refer to the chapter titled "Capital Structure" on page 76 of this Prospectus.

37. Our future fund requirements, in the form of further issue of capital or securities and/or loans taken by us, may be prejudicial to the interest of the Shareholders depending upon the terms on which they are eventually raised.

We may require additional capital from time to time depending on our business needs. Any further issue of Equity Shares or convertible securities would dilute the shareholding of the existing Shareholders and such issuance may be done on terms and conditions, which may not be favorable to the then existing Shareholders. If such funds are raised in the form of loans or debt or preference shares, then it may substantially increase our fixed interest/dividend burden and decrease our cash flows, thus adversely affecting our business, results of operations and financial condition.

38. We have in past entered into related party transactions and we may continue to do so in the future.

As of March 31, 2024, we have entered into several related party transactions with our Promoters, individuals and entities forming a part of our promoter group relating to our operations. In addition, we have in the past also entered into transactions with other related parties. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled — "Restated Financial Information" at page 194.

While we believe that all our related party transactions have been conducted on an arm's length basis, and we confirm that the related party transactions entered into by the company are in compliance with the relevant provisions of Companies Act and other applicable laws, we cannot assure you that we may not have achieved more favorable terms had such transactions been entered into with unrelated parties. There can be no assurance that such transactions, individually or taken together, will not have an adverse effect on our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition, including because of potential conflicts of interest or otherwise. In addition, our business and growth prospects may decline if we cannot benefit from our relationships with them in the future.

39. Our Promoters have extended personal properties as collateral for securing the facilities availed by our Company. Withdrawal of any properties may adversely affect our business operations and financial condition.

Our Promoter, Sudeesh Yezhuvath has extended his personal property as collateral for securing the loans availed by our Company. In the event if the personal property of our Promoter is withdrawn, our lenders may require us to furnish alternate properties or may demand a repayment of the outstanding amounts under the said facilities sanctioned or may even terminate the facilities sanctioned to us. There can be no assurance that our Company will be able to arrange such alternative properties in a timely manner or at all. If the properties are withdrawn, the ability of our Company to continue its business operations could be adversely affected. If our lenders enforce these restrictive covenants or exercise their options under the relevant debt financing agreements, our operations and use of assets may be significantly hampered and lenders may demand the payment of the entire outstanding amount and this in turn may also affect our further borrowing abilities thereby adversely affecting our business and operations.

40. Our agreements with lenders for financial arrangements contain restrictive covenants for certain activities and if we are unable to get their approval, it might restrict our scope of activities and impede our growth plans.

We have entered into agreements for our borrowings with certain lenders. These borrowings include secured fund based and non-fund based facilities. These agreements include restrictive covenants which mandate certain restrictions in terms of our business operations such as change in capital structure, formulation of any scheme of amalgamation or reconstruction, declaring dividends, further expansion of business, granting loans to directors, repaying unsecured loans from third parties, undertake guarantee obligations on behalf of any other borrower, which require our Company to obtain prior approval of the lenders for any of the above activities. We cannot assure you that our lenders will provide us with these approvals in the future. For details of these restrictive covenants, please refer to chapter titled — “Financial Indebtedness” on page 252 of this Prospectus.

Further, some of our financing arrangements include covenants to maintain our total outside liabilities and total net worth up to a certain limit and certain other liquidity ratios. We cannot assure prospective investors that such covenants will not hinder our business development and growth in the future. A default under one of these financing agreements may also result in cross-defaults under other financing agreements and result in the outstanding amounts under such financing agreements becoming due and payable immediately. Defaults under one or more of our Company’s financing agreements may limit our flexibility in operating our business, which could have an adverse effect on our cash flows, business, results of operations and financial condition.

It may be possible for a lender to assert that we have not complied with all applicable terms under our existing financing documents. Further we cannot assure that we will have adequate funds at all times to repay these credit facilities and may also be subject to demands for the payment of penal interest.

41. In addition to our existing indebtedness for our existing operations, we may incur further indebtedness during the course of business. We cannot assure that we would be able to service our existing and/ or additional indebtedness.

In addition to the indebtedness for our existing operations, we may incur further indebtedness during the course of our business. We cannot assure you that we will be able to obtain further loans at favorable terms. Increased borrowings, if any, may adversely affect our debt-equity ratio and our ability to borrow at competitive rates. In addition, we cannot assure you that the budgeting of our working capital requirements for a particular year will be accurate. There may be situations where we may under-budget our working capital requirements, which may lead to delays in arranging additional working capital requirements, loss of reputation, levy of liquidated damages and can cause an adverse effect on our cash flows.

Any failure to service our indebtedness or otherwise perform our obligations under our financing agreements entered with our lenders or which may be entered into by our Company, could trigger cross default provisions, penalties, acceleration of repayment of amounts due under such facilities which may cause an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. For details of our indebtedness, please refer to the chapter titled — “Financial Indebtedness” on page 252 of this Prospectus.

42. We have not made any alternate arrangements for meeting our capital requirements for the Objects of the Issue. Further, we have not identified any alternate source of financing the ‘Objects of the Issue’. Any shortfall in raising / meeting the same could adversely affect our growth plans, operations and financial performance.

As on date, we have not made any alternate arrangements for meeting our capital requirements for the Objects of the Issue. We meet our capital requirements through our bank finance, unsecured loans and internal accruals. Any shortfall in our internal accruals and our inability to raise debt in future would result in us being unable to meet our capital requirements, which in turn will negatively affect our financial condition and results of operations. Further, we have not identified any alternate source of funding and hence any failure or delay on our part to raise money from this issue or any shortfall in the issue proceeds may delay the implementation schedule and could adversely affect our growth plans. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled “Objects of the Issue” beginning on page 87 of this Prospectus.

43. Our success largely depends upon the knowledge and experience of our Promoters, Directors, our Key Managerial Personnel and our Senior Management Personnel. Loss of any of our Directors and key managerial personnel or our ability to attract and retain them could adversely affect our business, operations and financial condition.

The growth and success of our Company’s future significantly depends upon the experience of our Promoters and continued services and the management skills of our Senior Management Personnel and our Key Managerial Personnel and the guidance of our Promoters and Directors for development of business strategies, monitoring its successful implementation and meeting future challenges. We believe the expertise, experience and continued efforts of our Key Managerial Personnel and their inputs are valuable to for the operations of our Company. Our future success and growth depend largely on our ability to attract, motivate and retain the continued service of our highly skilled management personnel. Our Company has never been faced with a challenge of high rate of attrition of our Key Management Personnel and Senior Management Personnel in the past, however, any attrition of our experienced Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management Personnel, would adversely impact our growth strategy. We cannot assure you that we will be successful in recruiting and retaining a sufficient number of personnel with the requisite skills to replace those Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management Personnel who leave. In the event we are unable to motivate and retain our Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management Personnel and thereby lose the services of our highly skilled Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management Personnel may adversely affect the operations, financial condition and profitability of our Company and thereby hampering and adversely affecting our ability to expand our business. For further details on our Directors and Key Managerial Personnel, please refer to the chapter titled — “Our Management” on page 170 of this Prospectus.

There can be no assurance that our Company will be able to successfully renew the said lease agreements in a timely manner or at all or on terms favourable to us. Further, there can be no assurance that we will not face any disruption of our rights as a lessee and that such lease agreements will not be terminated prematurely by the lessor. Any such non-renewal or early termination or any disruption of our rights as lessee will adversely affect our business, financial conditions and results of operations. For further details, see “Our Business – Properties” on page 153.

45. Our lenders have charge over movable and immovable properties of our Company and our Promoters in respect of finance availed by us.

We have provided security in respect of loans / facilities availed by us from banks and financial institutions by creating a charge over movable and immovable properties of our Company and our Promoters. In the event we default in repayment of the loans / facilities availed by us and any interest thereof, our properties may be subject to forfeiture by lenders, which in turn could have significant adverse effect on business, financial condition or results of operations. For further information, kindly refer the chapter titled “Financial Indebtedness” beginning on page 252 of this Prospectus.

46. Any variation in the utilisation of the Net Proceeds or in the terms of any contract as disclosed in the Prospectus would be subject to certain compliance requirements, including prior shareholders’ approval.

Our Company intends to use the Net Proceeds towards the objects disclosed in the chapter titled “Objects of the Issue” on page 87. Our Board will have flexibility in temporarily investing the Net Proceeds as well as its inter se allocation across various heads, as disclosed in the section titled “Objects of the Issue”. In case of any exigencies arising out of business conditions, economic conditions, competition or other factors beyond our control which adversely affect our business, we may require to use the Net Proceeds to meet any other expenditure or fund which expenditure cannot be determined with certainty as on the date of this Prospectus. In terms of Section 27 of the Companies Act, 2013, we cannot undertake any variation in the utilisation of the Net Proceeds or in the terms of any contract as disclosed in this Prospectus without obtaining the shareholders’ approval through a special resolution. In the event of any such circumstances requiring us to undertake variation in the utilisation of the Net Proceeds disclosed in this Prospectus, we cannot assure that we will be able to obtain the shareholders’ approval in a timely manner, or at all. Any delay or inability in obtaining such shareholders’ approval may adversely affect our business or operations.

Further, our Promoters would be required to provide an exit opportunity to the shareholders who do not agree with our proposal to change the objects of the Issue. Additionally, the requirement on Promoters to provide an exit opportunity to such dissenting shareholders may deter the Promoters from agreeing to the variation of the proposed utilisation of the Net Proceeds, even if such variation is in the interest of our Company. Further, we cannot assure you that the Promoters of our Company will have adequate resources at their disposal at all times to enable them to provide an exit opportunity at the price prescribed by SEBI.

In light of these factors, we may not be able to undertake variation of objects of the Issue to use any unutilized proceeds of the Fresh Issue, if any, or vary the terms of any contract referred to in this Prospectus, even if such variation is in the interest of our Company. This may restrict our Company’s ability to respond to any change in our business or financial condition by re-deploying the unutilised portion of Net Proceeds, if any, which may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

47. Our inability to procure and/or maintain adequate insurance cover in connection with our business may adversely affect our operations and profitability.

Our operations are subject to inherent risks and hazards which may adversely impact our profitability, such as breakdown, malfunctions, sub-standard performance, fire, riots, third party liability claims, etc. Details of the insurance policies availed by our Company have been provided below:

There are many events that could cause significant damages to our operations, or expose us to third-party liabilities, whether or not known to us, for which we may not be insured or adequately insured, which in turn may expose us to certain risks and liabilities. There can be no assurance that our insurance policies will be adequate to cover the losses in respect of which the insurance had been availed. Further, there can be no assurance that any claim under the insurance policies maintained by us will be honored fully, in part, or on time. If we were to incur a significant liability for which we were not fully insured, it could adversely affect our results of operations and financial position.

48. Our ability to pay dividends in the future may be affected by any material adverse effect on our future earnings, financial condition or cash flows.

Our ability to pay dividends in future will depend on our earnings, financial condition and capital requirements. We may be unable to pay dividends in the near or medium term, and our future dividend policy will depend on our capital requirements and financing arrangements in respect of our operations, financial condition and results of operations. Our Company has not declared dividends in the past, and there can be no assurance that our Company will declare dividends in the future also. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled “Dividend Policy” on page 193 of this Prospectus.

49. Industry related data is taken from online sources and therefore may be incorrect or inaccurate.

Industry and related data contained in this Prospectus may be produced on a different basis from comparable information compiled with regards to other countries. Therefore, discussions of matters relating to India, its economy or the industries in which we operate that is included herein are subject to the caveat that the statistical and other data upon which such discussions are based have not been verified by us and may be incomplete, inaccurate or unreliable. Due to incorrect or ineffective data collection methods or discrepancies between published information and market practice and other problems, the statistics herein may be inaccurate or may not be comparable to statistics produced elsewhere and should not be unduly relied upon. Further, we cannot assure you that they are stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy, as the case may be, elsewhere.

50. The requirements of being a listed company may strain our resources.

We are not a listed Company and have not, historically, been subjected to the increased scrutiny of our affairs by shareholders, regulators and the public at large that is associated with being a listed company. As a listed company, we will incur significant legal, accounting, corporate governance and other expenses that we did not incur as an unlisted company. We will be subject to the listing agreements with the Stock Exchanges and compliances of SEBI (LODR) Regulations which will require us to file audited annual and unaudited half yearly results and limited review reports with respect to our business and financial condition. If we experience any delays, we may fail to satisfy our reporting obligations and/or we may not be able to readily determine and accordingly report any changes in our results of operations as promptly as other listed companies which may adversely affect the financial position of the Company.

As a listed company, we will need to maintain and improve the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, including keeping adequate records of daily transactions to support the existence of effective disclosure controls and procedures, internal control over financial reporting and additional compliance requirements under the Companies Act, 2013. In order to maintain and improve the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, significant resources and management oversight will be required. As a result, management’s attention may be diverted from other business concerns, which could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, we may need to hire additional legal and accounting staff with appropriate listed company experience and technical accounting knowledge and we cannot assure you that we will be able to do so in a timely manner.

51. The Equity Shares have never been publicly traded and the Issue may not result in an active or liquid market for the Equity Shares. Further, there is no existing market for our Equity Shares, and we do not know if one will develop to provide you with adequate liquidity. Further, an active trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop and the price of the Equity Shares may be volatile.

Prior to the Issue, there has been no public market for the Equity Shares, and an active trading market on the Stock Exchanges may not develop or be sustained after the Issue. Listing and quotation does not guarantee that a market for the Equity Shares will develop, or if developed, the liquidity of such market for the Equity Shares. Although we currently intend that the Equity Shares will remain listed on the Stock Exchanges, there is no guarantee of the continued listing of the Equity Shares. Failure to maintain our listing on the Stock Exchanges or other securities markets could adversely affect the market value of the Equity Shares.

The Issue Price of the Equity Shares is proposed to be determined through a fixed price process in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations and may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares at the time of commencement of trading of the Equity Shares or at any time thereafter. The market price of the Equity Shares may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to, among other factors, variations in our operating results of our Company, market conditions specific to the industry we operate in, developments relating to India, volatility in securities markets in jurisdictions other than India, variations in the growth rate of financial indicators, variations in revenue or earnings estimates by research publications, and changes in economic, legal and other regulatory factors. You may not be able to resell your Equity Shares at a price that is attractive to you.

An active public trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop or, if it develops, may not be maintained after the Issue. Our Company, in consultation with the Book Running Lead Manager, will determine the Issue Price. The Issue Price may be higher than the trading price of our Equity Shares following this Issue. As a result, investors may not be able to sell their Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price or at the time that they would like to sell. The trading price of the Equity Shares after the Issue may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to factors such as, variations in our results of operations, market conditions specific to the sectors in which we operate economic conditions of India and volatility of the securities markets elsewhere in the world.

52. There is no guarantee that the Equity Shares issued pursuant to the Issue will be listed on the SME Platform of National Stock Exchange of India Limited in a timely manner or at all.

In accordance with Indian law and practice, permission for listing and trading of the Equity Shares issued pursuant to the Issue will not be granted until after the Equity Shares have been issued and allotted. Approval for listing and trading will require all relevant documents authorizing the issuance of Equity Shares to be submitted. There could be a failure or delay in listing the Equity Shares on the SME Platform of National Stock Exchange of India Limited due to delay in submission of required documents/ completion of formalities/compliance with required laws by the issuer. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval would restrict your ability to dispose of your Equity Shares.

53. You may not be able to sell immediately on the Stock Exchanges any of the Equity Shares you purchase in the Issue.

The Equity Shares will be listed on the Emerge Platform of National Stock Exchange of India Limited. Pursuant to Indian regulations, certain actions must be completed before the Equity Shares can be listed and trading may commence. Upon receipt of final approval from the Stock Exchanges, trading in the Equity Shares is to commence within three (03) working days of the date of closure of the Issue or such other time as may be prescribed by SEBI. We cannot assure that the Equity Shares will be credited to investors' demat accounts, or that trading in the Equity Shares will commence, within the time period prescribed by law. Further, there can be no assurance that the Equity Shares to be Allotted pursuant to this Issue will be listed on the Stock Exchanges in a timely manner or at all.

54. There are restrictions on daily movements in the trading price of the Equity Shares, which may adversely affect a shareholder's ability to sell Equity Shares or the price at which Equity Shares can be sold at a particular point in time.

Our listed Equity Shares will be subject to a daily "circuit breaker" imposed on listed companies by the Stock Exchanges, which does not allow transactions beyond certain volatility in the trading price of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker operates independently of the index-based market-wide circuit breakers generally imposed by SEBI on Indian stock exchanges. The percentage limit on the Equity Shares' circuit breaker will be set by the Stock Exchanges based on historical volatility in the price and trading volume of the Equity Shares. The Stock Exchanges are not required to inform our Company of the percentage limit of the circuit breaker, and they may change the limit without our knowledge. This circuit breaker would effectively limit the upward and downward movements in the trading price of the Equity Shares. As a result of this circuit breaker, there can be no assurance regarding the ability of shareholders to sell Equity Shares or the price at which shareholders may be able to sell their Equity Shares.

55. The price of the Equity Shares may be volatile, which could result in substantial losses for investors acquiring the Equity Shares in the Issue.

The market price of the Equity Shares may be volatile and could fluctuate significantly and rapidly in response to, among others, the following factors, some of which are beyond our control:

- volatility in the Indian and global securities market or in the value of the Rupee relative to the U.S. Dollar, the Euro and other foreign currencies;
- our profitability and performance;
- changes in financial analysts' estimates of our performance or recommendations;
- perceptions about our future performance or the performance of Indian companies in general;
- performance of our competitors and the perception in the market about investments in the industries in which we operate;
- adverse media reports about us or the industries in which we operate;
- significant developments in India's economic liberalisation and deregulation policies;

- significant developments in India's fiscal and environmental regulations;
- economic developments in India and in other countries; and
- any other political or economic factors.

These fluctuations may be exaggerated if the trading volume of the Equity Shares is low. Volatility in the price of the Equity Shares may be unrelated or disproportionate to our results of operations. It may be difficult to assess our performance against either domestic or international benchmarks.

Indian stock exchanges, including the Stock Exchanges, have experienced substantial fluctuations in the prices of listed securities and problems such as temporary exchange closures, broker defaults, settlement delays and strikes by brokers. The governing bodies of Indian stock exchanges have also, from time to time, imposed restrictions on trading in certain securities, limitations on price movements and margin requirements. Further, disputes have occurred between listed companies, stock exchanges and other regulatory bodies, which in some cases may have had a negative effect on market sentiment. If such or similar problems were to continue or recur, they could affect the market price and liquidity of the securities of Indian companies, including the Equity Shares.

56. Any future issuance of Equity Shares, or convertible securities or other equity-linked securities by our Company may dilute your shareholding and any sale of Equity Shares by our Promoters or members of our Promoter Group may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any future issuance of the Equity Shares, convertible securities or securities linked to the Equity Shares by our Company may dilute your shareholding in our Company; adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares and our ability to raise capital through further issue of our securities. In addition, any perception by investors that such issuances or sales might occur could also affect the trading price of the Equity Shares. We cannot assure you that we will not issue additional Equity Shares. The disposal of Equity Shares by any of our Promoters and Promoter Group, or the perception that such sales may occur may significantly affect the trading price of the Equity Shares. We cannot assure you that our Promoters and Promoter Group will not dispose of, pledge or encumber their Equity Shares in the future.

57. Sale of Equity Shares by our Promoters or other significant shareholder(s) may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any instance of disinvestments of Equity Shares by our Promoters or by other significant shareholder(s) may significantly affect the trading price of our Equity Shares. Further, our market price may also be adversely affected even if there is a perception or belief that such sale of Equity Shares might occur.

58. Rights of shareholders under Indian laws may be more limited than under the laws of other jurisdictions.

Indian legal principles related to corporate procedures, directors' fiduciary duties and liabilities, and shareholders' rights may differ from those that would apply to a company in another jurisdiction. Shareholders' rights including in relation to class actions, under Indian law may not be as extensive as shareholders' rights under the laws of other countries or jurisdictions. Investors may have more difficulty in asserting their rights as shareholder in an Indian company than as shareholder of a corporation in another jurisdiction.

59. If we are unable to establish and maintain an effective system of internal controls and compliances, our business and reputation could be adversely affected.

We manage our internal compliance by monitoring and evaluating internal controls and ensuring all relevant statutory and regulatory compliances. However, there can be no assurance that deficiencies in our internal controls will not arise or that we will be able to implement and continue to maintain adequate measures to rectify or mitigate any such deficiencies in our internal controls, in a timely manner or at all. If we are unable to establish and maintain an effective system of internal controls and compliances, our business and reputation could be adversely affected.

EXTERNAL RISK FACTORS

60. Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties, including adverse application of tax laws, may adversely affect our business and financial performance.

The regulatory and policy environment in which we operate is evolving and subject to change. Such changes may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects, to the extent that we are unable to suitably respond to and comply with any such changes in applicable law and policy. For example, the Government of India implemented a comprehensive national goods and services tax (“GST”) regime with effect from July 1, 2017, that combined multiple taxes and levies by the Central and State Governments into a unified tax structure. Our business and financial performance could be adversely affected by any unexpected or onerous requirements or regulations resulting from the amendment of GST or any changes in laws or interpretation of existing laws, or the promulgation of new laws, rules and regulations relating to GST. The Government has enacted the GAAR which have come into effect from April 1, 2017.

The Government of India has announced the union budget for Fiscal 2024 and the Ministry of Finance has notified the Finance Act, 2023 (“Finance Act”). There is no certainty on the impact that the Finance Act may have on our business and operations or on the industry in which we operate. We cannot predict whether any amendments made pursuant to the Finance Act would have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. Unfavorable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new, laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment and stamp duty laws governing our business and operations could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws and may require us to apply for additional approvals. For instance, the Supreme Court of India has, in a decision clarified the components of basic wages, which need to be considered by companies while making provident fund payments. Our Company has not made relevant provisions for the same, as on date. Any such decisions in future or any further changes in interpretation of laws may have an impact on our results of operations. Further, the Personal Data Protection Bill, 2019 (“PDP Bill”) was introduced to propose a legal framework governing the processing of personal data. However, the PDP Bill has been withdrawn on August 3, 2022 and the Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology, Government of India (“MoEIT”) has submitted a new Digital Personal Data Protection Bill, 2022 before the Parliament.

We may incur increased costs and other burdens relating to compliance with such new requirements, which may also require significant management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current businesses or restrict our ability to grow our businesses in the future.

61. Our business is substantially affected by prevailing economic conditions in India.

We perform all of our activities in India, and the predominant portions of our customers are Indian nationals. As a result, we are highly dependent on prevailing economic conditions in India and our results of operation are significantly affected by factors influencing the Indian economy. Factors that may adversely affect the Indian economy, and hence our results of operations, include:

- any increase in Indian interest rates or inflation;
- prevailing income conditions among Indian consumers and Indian corporations;
- changes in India’s present tax, trade, fiscal or monetary policies;
- natural disasters, political instability, communal disturbances, riots, civil unrest, terrorism or military conflict in India or in countries in the region or globally, including in India’s various neighboring countries; and
- prevailing national, regional or global economic conditions, including in India’s principal export markets.

In addition to the factors set forth above, our business may be affected by adverse changes specific to the industries in which we operate.

62. Foreign investors are subject to foreign investment restrictions under Indian law.

Under the foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, transfers of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain exceptions) if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements or fall under any of the exceptions, then the prior approval of the RBI will be required. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert the Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India will require a no objection or a tax clearance certificate from the income tax authority. We cannot assure you that any required approval from the RBI or any other Government agency can be obtained on any particular terms or at all.

63. Any downgrading of India’s debt rating by an independent agency may harm our ability to raise financing.

Any adverse revisions to India's credit ratings international debt by international rating agencies may adversely affect our ability to raise additional overseas financing and the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such additional financing is available. This could have an adverse effect on our ability to fund our growth on favourable terms or at all, and consequently adversely affect our business and financial performance and the price of our Equity Shares.

64. Political instability or a change in economic liberalization and deregulation policies could seriously harm business and economic conditions in India generally and our business in particular.

The Government of India has traditionally exercised and continues to exercise influence over many aspects of the economy. Our business and the market price and liquidity of our Equity Shares may be affected by interest rates, changes in Government policy, taxation, social and civil unrest and other political, economic or other developments in or affecting India. The rate of economic liberalization could change, and specific laws and policies affecting the information technology sector, foreign investment and other matters affecting investment in our securities could change as well. Any significant change in such liberalization and deregulation policies could adversely affect business and economic conditions in India, generally, and our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations, in particular.

65. Global economic, political and social conditions may harm our ability to do business, increase our costs and negatively affect our stock price.

Global economic and political factors that are beyond our control, influence forecasts and directly affect performance of our business. These factors include interest rates, rates of economic growth, fiscal and monetary policies of governments, inflation, deflation, foreign exchange fluctuations, consumer credit availability, fluctuations in markets, consumer debt levels, unemployment trends and other matters that influence consumer confidence and spending. Increasing volatility in financial markets may cause these factors to change with a greater degree of frequency and magnitude, which may negatively affect our stock prices.

66. Natural calamities could have a negative impact on the Indian economy and cause our business to suffer.

India has experienced natural calamities such as earthquakes, tsunamis, floods etc. In recent years, the extent and severity of these natural disasters determine their impact on the Indian economy. Prolonged spells of abnormal rainfall or other natural calamities could have a negative impact on the Indian economy, which could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations as well as the price of the Equity Shares.

67. Terrorist attacks, civil unrests and other acts of violence or war involving India or other countries could adversely affect the financial markets, our business, financial condition and the price of our Equity Shares.

Any major hostilities involving India or other acts of violence, including civil unrest or similar events that are beyond our control, could have a material adverse effect on India's economy and our business. Incidents such as the terrorist attacks, other incidents such as those in US, Indonesia, Madrid and London, and other acts of violence may adversely affect the Indian stock markets where our Equity Shares will trade as well as the global equity markets generally. Such acts could negatively impact business sentiment as well as trade between countries, which could adversely affect our Company's business and profitability. Additionally, such events could have a material adverse effect on the market for securities of Indian companies, including the Equity Shares.

Illustration of the Book Building and Price Discovery Process: Bidders should note that this example is solely for illustrative purposes and is not specific to the Issue. Bidders can bid at any price within the Price Band. For instance, assume a Price Band of ₹20/- to ₹ 24/- per share, Issue size of 3,000 Equity Shares and receipt of five Bids from Bidders, details of which are shown in the table below. The illustrative book given below shows the demand for the Equity Shares of the Issuer at various prices and is collated from Bids received from various investors.

Bid Quantity	Bid Amount (₹)	Cumulative Quantity	Subscription
500	24	500	16.67%
1,000	23	1,500	50.00%
1,500	22	3,000	100.00%
2,000	21	5,000	166.67%
2,500	20	7,500	250.00%

The price discovery is a function of demand at various prices. The highest price at which the Issuer is able to Issue the desired number of Equity Shares is the price at which the book cuts off, i.e., ₹ 22.00 in the above example. The Company in consultation with the BRLM, may finalise the Issue Price at or below such Cut-Off Price, i.e., at or below ₹ 22.00. All Bids at or above this Issue Price and cut-off Bids are valid Bids and are considered for allocation in the respective categories.

Steps that were required to be taken by the Bidders for Bidding:

However, we have not entered into any definitive agreements with any of these vendors and there can be no assurance that the same vendors would be engaged to eventually supply the machineries/equipment's or at the same costs.
- The hardware/equipment models and quantity to be purchased are based on the present estimates of our management. The Management shall have the flexibility to revise such estimates (including but not limited to change of vendor or any modification/addition/deletion of machineries or equipment's) at the time of actual placement of the order. In such case, the Management can utilize the surplus of proceeds, if any, arising at the time of actual placement of the order, to meet the cost of such other equipment's or utilities as required. Furthermore, if any surplus / deficit of the proceeds for meeting the total cost of machineries shall be used / adjusted in General Corporate Purposes, subject to limit of 25% of the amount raised by our Company through this Issue.
- The quotations relied upon by us in arriving at the above cost are valid for a specific period of time and may lapse after the expiry of the said period. Consequent upon which, there could be a possible escalation in the cost of machineries proposed to be acquired by us at the actual time of purchase, resulting in increase in the estimated cost. Further, cost will be escalated on account of freight expenses, installation charges, packaging & forwarding, etc. Such cost escalation would be met out of our internal accruals.

2. Investment in our subsidiary

Pelatro today operates extensively in Asia and Africa. We currently have a wholly owned subsidiary in Singapore under the name of Pelatro Pte. Ltd. In order to improve our efficiency, acquiring new customers, leverage our existing customers and expand our offerings we further need to expand our team for which hiring and recruiting the intended manpower at different level will also require substantial investments. For details in relation to our expansion, please see “Our Business”, beginning on page 126 of this Prospectus.

Our Board, by way of resolution passed in its meeting dated June 18, 2024 noted the requirement for an amount upto Rs. 1,000 Lacs proposed to be incurred and utilized as expenditure towards expansion of business by investing in our subsidiary Pelatro Pte. Ltd.

The Company intends to invest in its current subsidiary Pelatro Pte. Ltd. Singapore so as to expand its sales and marketing capabilities. The objective is to step up these activities in order to win more contracts and record a higher growth. The Company has built a large clientele over the past few years and they are referenceable. Given the stature of the customers and the maturity of the products, the time is appropriate to take advantage of the growing opportunity. The investment through the Company’s subsidiary in Singapore will be in three areas namely, employment of new sales personnel, travel for these personnel and participation in more trade shows.

In order for further organic growth outside India, we are required to hire skilled technical, sales, and business development personnel. The market for skilled employees in the IT industry in which our Company operates, is extremely competitive in both domestic and global markets, and the process of hiring such employees requires infusion of significant time and resources. Pursuant to the factors set out above, we intend to expand our capabilities in the overseas market and seek to hire more personnel to cater to existing and new customers in accordance with the rise in demands for our products across the world.

Further, the investment in the subsidiary will be in the form of equity or equity related instruments as may be decided by Management. As on date of this Prospectus, the form of investment has not been decided. We believe that the said investment in our wholly owned subsidiaries will scale up our operations and brand presence which will be benefited to our company to build a strong team and to cater the prospective customers.

Investment in the subsidiary will be in the form as disclosed below:

- a. Investment in Human Resources for onboarding new global customers, travel requirements to cater to multiple geographies and participation in trade shows

We have been successful in augmenting our portfolio of solutions over time through continuous in-house product development, which we believe is a key differentiator of our business model. As of May 31, 2024, we had 296 employees, including 69 employees in our Development & Testing team, 36 employees in Implementation, 91 employees in support services and 42 employees in Business Consulting and Operations. Our commitment to innovation is evident as we consistently invest in both enhancing our existing solutions and developing new ones.

The Company currently has 4 sales and 1 marketing personnel. Out of these sales personnel, 1 is in Latin America, 2 in Middle East and Africa and 1 handles inside sales. The company plans to add 3 more personnel to oversee the enhanced sales and business development efforts to cover Asia Pacific, Europe, North America and South America. The current salary for the sales person in Latin America is USD 102,000. The salary in Europe and North America is expected to be around USD 1,50,000 and that in Asia Pacific will be USD 1,20,000. For the same, the Company has budgeted an average salary of USD 115,000 per sales person per year. The gestation period for a new sales person is about 2 – 2.5 years.

Participation in trade shows is a key sales and marketing activity. Currently, the Company participates in 2 trade shows each year at an average cost of about INR 45.00 lakhs per trade show. The plan is to add 3 trade shows per year at an average cost per trade show of INR 40.00 Lakhs. The Company had spent ~INR 30.00 lakhs per person per annum towards travelling expense for each person. The same amount has been considered for the new sales personnel as well.

Further, over the past few years, the Company has succeeded in developing a bouquet of products and in winning several customers for the same. Our products have been operating successfully with those customers. The next step in the growth of the Company is to win more customers. Towards that, the plan is to employ four (4) new sales people in the Subsidiary. The basis for the figures used is Company's own data (for its current sales person in Latin America) and data provided by HR recruitment consultants in other geographies. Such addition in sales people is expected to result in new contracts thereby helping the Company to grow as per its plan.

- Mode of Investment: Equity or equity related instruments.
- Benefit of Acquisition: Ownership of intellectual property, increase in revenue, brand presence, to cater to the existing & prospective customers are the benefits that accrue to the Company. The Subsidiary owns the entire intellectual property for all the products sold and serviced by the Company. As it is critical to own the intellectual property, the Company felt it prudent to acquire Pelatro Pte. Ltd., Singapore to have full ownership and control over the intellectual property and the resultant patents. Further, in the past, the revenue of Pelatro Pte. Ltd., Singapore would not accrue to the Company. Consequent to the acquisition, all the revenue earned by the Subsidiary will naturally belong to the Company.
- Business Model: The business model of the Subsidiary is same as that of the Company
- Capital Structure: 100% owned by Pelatro Limited

The Financial data of Pelatro Pte Ltd for the past 3 years are as below:

The Subsidiary, i.e. Pelatro Pte Ltd. develops, implements and supports the products of the Company. It has employed technical personnel in Philippines and Russia who perform all the technical activities like developing the software, implementing the software in the servers of the customers and supporting the software. Further, the Subsidiary has a contract with the Company wherein the latter develops, implements and support software on behalf of the former. All these activities have resulted in the Subsidiary owning the IP for all the products and also owning some patents. As on 31st March 2024, the Subsidiary employed 33 technical personnel for development, implementation and support of our software products.

In a product company like ours, the first activity is to develop a product or products and prepare the same for potential customers. This activity has been going on for the past few years with the result that the Company now has a set of products which have been implemented with various customers leading to referenceable customers and products. The next step in the growth of the business is to sell these products to as many customers as possible in a variety of countries. As the Company is now at this juncture, the investment required is more in sales and marketing and less in development of products. Hence, our decision to utilise some of the proceeds to engage additional sales people and to undertake an expanded set of marketing activities. That is why we are planning to recruit sales people in the Subsidiary to target Europe, Middle East, Africa, Asia and Latin America. We believe that these investments will bring in several new contracts in the years to come which will help us to grow in line with the expectations of the investors.

Our Company has participated in many trade shows. Participating in trade shows serves many purposes. Potential customers visit these trade shows to identify and start their evaluation process for products. Thus, trade shows help the Company to connect with potential customers who were otherwise unknown to the Company. It has been the Company's experience that every trade show results in several new leads. Some of these leads then get converted into opportunities over a period. Based on data available with the Company, every relevant trade show results in at least one new customer. While the cost to participate in a trade show is about Rs. 45 lakhs, the revenue from the new customer will be several times that amount. Thus, the cost-benefit analysis is in favour of participation. However, it is important to evaluate carefully and choose the appropriate trade show. The Company conducts the diligent process to identify the trade show to be participated in considering various relevant factors including type of visitors, participants and other stakeholders of the event.

Two examples of specific contracts won by participating in trade shows are given below:

The Company participated in Mobile World Congress, Barcelona in February 2023. Consequent to that, several new leads were generated, and meetings were set up in the subsequent months. While some of them are yet to mature, one large contract was won with a telco in Asia. The five-year value of that contract is Rs. 9.7 crores with the average annual amount being Rs. 1.94 crores. Similarly, the Company participated in Middle East Banking Innovation Summit, Dubai in May 2023. A contract with a bank in Africa valued at about Rs. 4.8 crores for five years i.e. Rs. 96 lakhs p.a. was won. The cost benefit analysis favouring the participation from the trade show can be observed from the above examples.

The breakup of the amount to be utilized from the net proceeds shall be as below:

(Amount in ₹)

Particulars	Fiscal 2025	Fiscal 2026
Salaries ⁽¹⁾	2,15,80,000	4,21,60,000

(2) The travel & trade show estimates are based on the past experience of the Company

(3) The actual deployment of funds towards investment in Subsidiaries will depend on a number of factors, including the timing, nature, size and number of initiatives undertaken, as well as general factors affecting our results of operation, financial condition and access to capital.

GLOBAL ECONOMIC OVERVIEW

Economic activity was surprisingly resilient through the global disinflation of 2022–23. As global inflation descended from its mid-2022 peak, economic activity grew steadily, defying warnings of stagflation and global recession. Growth in employment and incomes held steady, reflecting supportive demand developments—including greater-than-expected government spending and household consumption—and a supply-side expansion amid, notably, an unanticipated boost to labor force participation. The unexpected economic resilience, despite significant central bank interest rate hikes aimed at restoring price stability, also reflects the ability of households in major advanced economies to draw on substantial savings accumulated during the pandemic.

Global headline inflation is expected to fall from an annual average of 6.8 percent in 2023 to 5.9 percent in 2024 and 4.5 percent in 2025, with advanced economies returning to their inflation targets sooner than emerging market and developing economies. The latest forecast for global growth five years from now—at 3.1 percent—is at its lowest in decades.

To counter rising inflation, major central banks have raised policy interest rates to levels estimated as restrictive. As a result, mortgage costs have increased and credit availability is generally tight, resulting in difficulties for firms refinancing their debt, rising corporate bankruptcies, and subdued business and residential investment in several economies. The commercial real estate sector, including office markets, is under especially strong pressure in some economies, with rising defaults and lower investment and valuations, reflecting the combined effects of higher borrowing costs and the shift toward remote work since the pandemic.

However, despite concerns, a global economic downturn caused by a sharp rise in policy rates has not materialized, for several reasons. First, some central banks—including the European Central Bank and the Federal Reserve—raised their nominal interest rates after inflation expectations started to rise, resulting in lower real rates that initially supported economic activity. The Bank of Japan has continued to keep policy rates near zero, resulting in a steady decline in real interest rates. By contrast, the central banks of Brazil, Chile, and several other emerging market and developing economies raised rates relatively quickly, resulting in earlier increases in real interest rates. Second, households in major advanced economies were able to draw on substantial savings accumulated during the pandemic to limit the impact of higher borrowing costs on their spending. Third, changes in mortgage and housing markets over the prepandemic decade of low interest rates have limited the drag of the recent rise in policy rates on household consumption in several economies. The average maturity and share of mortgages subject to fixed rates increased, moderating the near-term impact of rate hikes. At the same time, there is substantial heterogeneity in the degree of the monetary policy pass-through to mortgages and housing markets across countries.

Nevertheless, the cooling effects of high policy rates are intensifying in several economies. Fixed-rate mortgages are resetting, the stock of pandemic savings available to soften the impact on households has declined in advanced economies, and with inflation expectations falling, real policy rates are rising even where central banks have not changed nominal rates.

At the same time, with inflation moving toward targets, market expectations that policy rates will decline have generally contributed to a decline in long-term borrowing rates, rising equity markets, and an easing in overall global financial conditions since last October, although funding is still more expensive than before the pandemic. Central banks that raised policy rates earlier, including those in Brazil and Chile, have already cut them substantially since the second half of 2023. With expectations of lower interest rates in advanced economies, the appetite for assets in emerging market and developing economies has picked up, and sovereign spreads on risk-free government debt have fallen from their July 2022 peaks toward their prepandemic levels. Accordingly, more governments that earlier faced severe funding shortages are accessing international debt markets this year.

INDIAN ECONOMIC OVERVIEW

Strong economic growth in the first quarter of FY23 helped India overcome the UK to become the fifth-largest economy after it recovered from the COVID-19 pandemic shock. India's gross domestic product (GDP) at current prices in the second quarter (Q2) of 2023-24 is estimated to be Rs. 71.66 trillion (US$ 861.2 billion), as against Rs.5.67 trillion (US$ 789.2 billion) in Q2 of 2022-23, showing a growth rate of 9.1%. Strong domestic demand for consumption and investment, along with Government's continued emphasis on capital expenditure are seen as among the key driver of the GDP in the first half of FY24. In 2023-24 (April-December), India's service exports stood at US$ 247.92 billion. Furthermore, India's overall exports (services and merchandise) in 2023-24 (April-December) were estimated at US$ 565.04 billion. Rising employment and substantially increasing private consumption, supported by rising consumer sentiment, will support GDP growth in the coming months.

Future capital spending of the government in the economy is expected to be supported by factors such as tax buoyancy, the streamlined tax system with low rates, a thorough assessment and rationalisation of the tariff structure, and the digitization of tax filing. In the medium run, increased capital spending on infrastructure and asset-building projects is set to increase growth multipliers. The contact-based services sector has largely demonstrated promise to boost growth by unleashing the pent-up demand.

India has emerged as the fastest-growing major economy in the world and is expected to be one of the top three economic powers in the world over the next 10-15 years, backed by its robust democracy and strong partnerships.

India's appeal as a destination for investments has grown stronger and more sustainable as a result of the current period of global unpredictability and volatility, and the record amounts of money raised by India-focused funds in 2022 are evidence of investor faith in the "Invest in India" narrative.

Infusing technology:

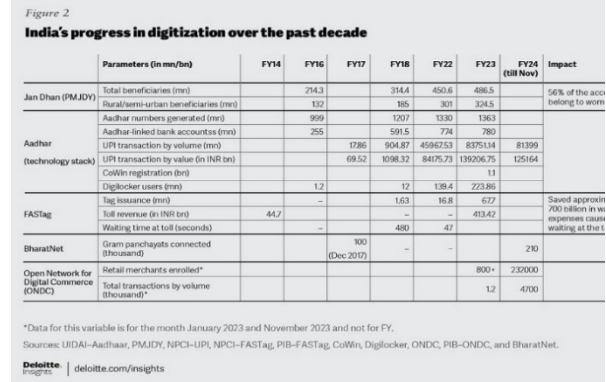

India's digital economy grew 2.4 times faster between 2014 and 2019, generating about 62.4 million jobs. As its know-how and capabilities were enhanced, India started creating newer and more complex products and solutions for its large consumer market, which not just worked as a testing ground but also soon presented opportunities to scale up. Government policy and initiatives also fostered innovation by building the required infrastructure and ensuring security and responsiveness. Solutions from technology-led know-how resulted in greater financial inclusion (through innovative modes of digital payments such as unified payments interface [UPI]), formalization of credit (with account aggregator networks), and plugging revenue leakages (using online tax platforms and FASTag), among others.

For example, the introduction of online e-filing platforms and simplified income tax return forms like ITR-1 (Sahaj) have made filing taxes easier and more accessible. There has been a surge in the number of income tax filers and increased tax compliance, as digitization has made it easier to scrutinize income, wealth, and tax returns filed more efficiently. While strong growth and economic activity have largely contributed to higher tax collections, plugging loopholes through digitization has also helped (figure 1). Compliance with goods and services tax (GST) rules has also improved direct income tax collections, as digital information improved coordination across tax departments. Another example is FASTag. Since its implementation in 2017, toll revenues have gone up 9.2 times to INR 413 billion in fiscal 2023, while over 10 years, average waiting times have come down from 734 seconds to 47 seconds, saving INR 700 billion worth of fuel.

Digitization has improved both tax collection and tax returns filed numbers

Improving fundamentals have buoyed the outlook and it is expected that India to grow between 6.9% and 7.2% through fiscals 2023 to 2024 in the baseline scenario, followed by 6.4% and 6.7% over the next year (for more on the baseline and pessimistic scenarios, see sidebar). High inflation is expected to persist till the second half of fiscal 2024 due to high food and volatile oil prices and soften thereafter.

India will see growth momentum improving

Consumer prices are likely to remain above the RBI's Comfort level till mid next year

Government of India's Measures/ Initiative for Economic Growth:

India continues to be one of the fastest-growing economies of the world. The country's second quarter growth, 7.6 per cent, has been then highest in the world and India's GDP growth for the April-June quarter was 7.8 per cent.

Putting into effect the roadmap for making India a $5 trillion economy, the Government continues to focus on growth at the macro level and complementing it with all-inclusive welfare at the micro level, promoting digital economy and fintech, technology-enabled development, energy transition and climate action and relying on a virtuous cycle of investment and growth.

The G20 Finance Track under India's leadership addressed critical global issues, including the strengthening of Multilateral Development Banks (MDBs) through the G20 Independent Expert Group's comprehensive report. The DEA played a pivotal role in fostering cooperation on crypto-assets, with the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the Financial Stability Board (FSB) developing a Synthesis Paper adopted as the G20 Roadmap on Crypto Assets in October 2023.

During the G20 Indian Presidency, India steered the G20 agenda and hosted the Summit. The G20 consists of two parallel tracks: the Finance Track and the Sherpa Track. Finance Ministers and Central Bank Governors lead the Finance Track, while Sherpas lead the Sherpa Track. The high point of the Leaders' Summit was that a global consensus was arrived at in the form of New Delhi Leaders' Declaration (NDLD).

The DEA also played a role in financial sector reforms, including the launch of the NSE IFSC-SGX Connect and the transition to a T+1 settlement cycle, positioning India as a pioneer in global securities markets. (Source: <https://pib.gov.in/PressReleaseIframePage.aspx?PRID=1990745>)

GLOBAL ECONOMIC OVERVIEW

The global telecommunications and BFSI (banking, financial services, and insurance) customer engagement market is experiencing significant growth, driven by the increasing demand for personalized and efficient customer interactions. In a digital-centric world, both telecommunications and BFSI sectors are leveraging advanced technologies such as AI, machine learning, and big data analytics to enhance customer experiences and build loyalty. Customer engagement solutions encompass a range of tools including CRM systems, omnichannel communication platforms, and automated marketing solutions. These technologies enable companies to deliver seamless, personalized, and real-time interactions, addressing the evolving expectations of tech-savvy customers. As digital transformation accelerates, the importance of effective customer engagement strategies continues to rise, positioning this market for robust expansion.

Key market trends, growth factors, and opportunities

The adoption of AI and machine learning is a major trend, as these technologies enable companies to analyze vast amounts of data, predict customer behaviour, and offer personalized services. The expansion of 5G networks is another significant trend, providing faster and more reliable connectivity, which enhances the delivery of advanced customer engagement solutions such as augmented reality (AR) and virtual reality (VR) experiences. Additionally, there is a growing emphasis on omnichannel engagement, where companies aim to provide consistent and seamless interactions across various digital and physical touchpoints. Despite these promising trends, the market faces notable restraints. Data privacy and security concerns are paramount, as both telecommunications and BFSI sectors handle sensitive customer information. Compliance with stringent regulations like GDPR and CCPA requires substantial investment in cybersecurity measures, which can be a financial burden, particularly for smaller firms. Furthermore, the high implementation and maintenance costs associated with advanced customer engagement solutions can be prohibitive, limiting the adoption rate among companies with limited resources. However, these challenges also present opportunities. For instance, advancements in AI and machine learning offer significant potential for improving customer engagement by providing deeper insights and enabling more precise personalization. The rollout of 5G networks not only enhances connectivity but also opens up new avenues for innovative customer engagement strategies. Additionally, the digital transformation in both sectors creates opportunities to streamline operations, improve efficiency, and deliver superior customer experiences. By addressing data security concerns and managing implementation costs effectively, companies can harness these opportunities to drive growth and stay competitive in the global market.

For instance June 2022, Acqueon partnered with Genpact, the top global financial services BPO and transformation company for the banking and financial services industry. The news included an update about the launch of a new, joint solution that brought Acqueon’s sought-after campaign manager and built-in, AI powered conversational intelligence capabilities to Genpact’s global customer base.

INDIAN ECONOMIC OVERVIEW

The India telecommunications and BFSI (Banking, Financial Services, and Insurance) customer engagement market is rapidly evolving, fueled by the country's digital transformation and increasing internet penetration. As one of the world's fastest-growing digital economies, India is witnessing a surge in the adoption of advanced technologies to enhance customer engagement. The telecommunications sector is expanding with the rollout of 4G and the upcoming 5G networks, while the BFSI sector is embracing digital banking, mobile wallets, and fintech innovations. Customer engagement solutions, including CRM systems, AI-driven chatbots, and omnichannel platforms, are becoming essential for businesses to meet the rising expectations of tech-savvy Indian consumers. This market growth is underpinned by the government's Digital India initiative, which aims to improve digital infrastructure and promote financial inclusion.

Key market trends, growth factors, and opportunities

The proliferation of smartphones and affordable internet has led to increased digital engagement, with customers expecting seamless, personalized experiences across all channels. In telecommunications, the anticipated rollout of 5G networks is expected to revolutionize customer interactions by enabling faster, more reliable, and innovative services such as AR and VR experiences. In the BFSI sector, the rise of digital banking and fintech startups is driving the adoption of advanced customer engagement solutions, including AI-driven analytics for personalized financial advice and fraud detection. However, the market faces notable restraints. Data privacy and security concerns are significant, particularly in light of high-profile data breaches and the sensitive nature of financial and personal information handled by these sectors. Compliance with regulations like the Information Technology Act and emerging data protection laws requires substantial investment in cybersecurity measures, which can strain resources, especially for smaller companies. Additionally, the high costs associated with implementing and maintaining sophisticated customer engagement solutions are prohibitive, limiting their widespread adoption. Despite these challenges, there are substantial opportunities in the market. The growing emphasis on digital financial inclusion presents a significant opportunity for BFSI companies to reach underserved populations with tailored digital banking solutions. Advancements in AI and machine learning offer the potential for enhanced customer insights and more effective engagement strategies. Furthermore, the government's push towards a digital economy, through initiatives like Aadhaar and Unified Payments Interface (UPI), supports the development and adoption of customer engagement solutions. By effectively addressing data security concerns and managing implementation costs, companies in the telecommunications and BFSI sectors leverage these opportunities to enhance customer engagement, drive growth, and gain a competitive edge in the dynamic Indian market.

For instance, in October 2022, Communications services provider Avaya partnered with US-based firm Startek to offer a one-stop solution for customer experience services to enterprises across the globe including India. The main aim is to tap small and medium businesses (SMEs) globally as companies move towards a digital transformation post the pandemic. The collaboration enables businesses to deliver better experiences to their customers through all-inclusive and easy-to-manage subscription-based services without incurring any substantial capital expenditure.

Market size and forecast, by region

The telecommunication and BFSI customer engagement solutions market for India was valued at $161.31 million in 2023 and is projected to reach $778.71 million by 2033, registering a CAGR of 16.4% from 2024 to 2033.

PORTFOLIO OF PRODUCT & SERVICES

I) Our Customer Engagement Platform – mViva Customer Engagement Platform

mViva offers solutions to technology and banking companies which enables them to (i) grow revenue from existing consumers; (ii) maximize value from existing consumers; and (iii) deliver increased value of service to each consumers. The above results are provided by undertaking one-to-one, contextual marketing. Contextual marketing requires full knowledge of the needs and behaviour of each consumer in their individual context. The approach is to be more consumer-centric and not product or campaign-centric. mViva is a next generation solution focused on using contextual data coupled with relevant micro-segmentation to facilitate contextual marketing. The idea is to use contextual data to suggest offers and actions that would be relevant and interesting to a micro segment, or even one individual.

mViva gleans out relevant information from transaction records of the consumer – such as calls, recharges, messages, downloads, complaints, credit card usage, deposits, online purchases etc. Intelligent algorithms are then applied to crunch through these large volumes of data to identify patterns and the context of each consumer. Each consumer is then provided with a relevant offer, if applicable. The engagement with each consumer happens on multiple levels, in an omni channel manner, for various objectives and end results and that is achieved through various solutions and services that form part of the platform. Given below are the components that come together seamlessly to form the platform.

A) mViva Contextual Campaign Management Solution

mViva offers the following solutions under the campaign management solutions:

- intelligent micro-segmentation based on dynamic parameters, which allow identification of consumers with similar profiles and needs;
- intelligent offers based on each micro-segment, which increases adoption of offers;
- drive additional usage through delivery of offers relevant to the consumer, at the right time;
- increase cross-sell and up-sell through offers relevant to the consumer;
- increase efficiency of campaigns through relevant targeting leading to the increased acceptance of campaigns
- increase number of concurrent campaigns;
- increase ability to “test-and-learn” by putting out multiple pilot campaigns; and
- full functional workflow including integration with a wide variety of data sources and channels.

Features

mViva offers a variety of features that help enterprises to achieve precision marketing and thus increase the relevance of their offers. It uses machine learning algorithms to assist users in creating optimal campaigns.

Outbound and Inbound Marketing: Traditionally, campaigning has been focused on outbound campaigns and have used various channels for outreach. However, it is now identified that inbound channels provide a greater opportunity for cross-sell, up-sell or retention offers. mViva provides functionality that specifically facilitates inbound marketing such as Next Best Action, Customer 360 etc. Some of the functionalities are given below.

- Multi-dimensional consumer profile: mViva builds a profile for each consumer based on information gathered from their transactions, usage, demographics etc. This is a very detailed record of activities of each consumer and has about 500-600 dimensions, some of which are derived directly from the input records and some are insights calculated using statistical and other methods.
- Segment of One (N=1), targeted, multi-stage campaigns: mViva has functionality to design, define and execute campaigns in totality. The first step is to define a segment as explained above. Offers can then be attached to these segments, to make a campaign. Offers and rewards can be programmed on any of the consumer profile fields and hence, rules can be very specific and targeted at individuals and thus the offer becomes tailored to the behaviour of the individual. This capability makes the system very precise and enables one-to-one, targeted marketing. The offer definition is also achieved through a user-friendly GUI.

Campaigns can also be combined into various stages wherein a campaign is sent first and based on acceptance or non-acceptance; another is sent as a follow-up. Such combinations based on acceptance and rejection can be built up to motivate behavioural change in consumers. For instance, a campaign to purchase can be followed by a campaign to spend, for consumers who purchased. These campaigns are scheduled and run automatically based on the schedule. It is also possible to have campaigns in pilot mode or schedule them to run daily or at periodic intervals. Campaigns can also be run based on specific triggers.

- c. Real-time insights: mViva creates a multi-dimensional profile for each consumer based on various fields collected from different data sources. We have developed an advanced and intelligent data extracting application that helps us to come up with these insights much faster than is possible with conventional data marts and mining engines. We conduct guided real time profile discovery using multi-dimensional vector search to provide insights in real-time and as can be seen from the sample screen below, these are really insights and not output of queries.
- d. Champion-Challenger Campaigns: This functionality allows for the definition of a Champion campaign and several challenger campaigns. The Challengers can have different actions and rewards as compared to the Champion, and this helps to figure which action and reward are eliciting the best response from the consumer. The target base can be divided between the Champion and the Challengers based on percentages or absolute numbers. The method of selection can be based on Simple Random Sampling or Stratified Sampling or using custom lists.
- e. Next Best Action: The Next Best Action module permits the Customer Service Representative (CSR) to query for the most appropriate offer for a particular consumer. It can also be used in journeys to nudge the consumer in specific directions.
- f. Customer 360: mViva can be integrated with the CRM through an API so that the CSRs can look up the details of consumers as they call in. This is very helpful for the CSR as they can see details such as consumption pattern of consumers, revenue details, their response to offers, currently valid offers etc. This will facilitate Inbound Marketing to consumers as they reach out to the CSRs or even across web-portals, apps etc.
- g. Customer Journey Management: mViva tracks each consumer journey closely and these may also be linked to consumer lifecycle stages. Various points of intervention along each step in the journey is identified through AI-ML assistance or through predefined rules. Thus, the enterprise is able to connect with the consumer at relevant points and influence the journey. This involves identifying the right point for intervention, right method of intervention with a very relevant offer. mViva generates a detailed profile for each consumer and maps the consumer journey.
- h. Closed loop marketing solution: mViva is a closed loop precision marketing solution as it has a feedback path that helps to improve the efficiency of its campaigns based on past performance of campaigns. Feedback on acceptance behaviour of consumers is brought back and this data is used to enrich the consumer profile. Machine learning algorithms can then be deployed on this data to improve the efficiency of campaigns.

Loyalty Management Programs have been around for a long time and several industries such as hospitality, airline etc. have used these very effectively to build a loyal consumer base. Telecom and banking newcomers to this area. Loyalty Management Programs can be considered to be of the following types.

- Points: Consumers accumulate points based on their spending and these points can be exchanged for rewards
- Affinity / Tier: Consumers accumulate points based on spending but then also get categorised into various tiers based on the amount of spending or affinity to various products; benefits will vary by tier

Consumers earn points based on their transactions or other aspects and the number of points for each activity can be configured in the system. Earning rules can be set by the users with the help of the drop down menu which has hundreds of profile fields. Earning rules can be set using one profile field or using a combination of profile fields. Based on the inputs, the system generates profile of each consumer. AI/ML is used to track consumer's usage behaviour to make the earning process contextual and relevant.

Tiers: As part of the contextual loyalty management programme consumers can be categorized in different. Tiers are differentiated based on the points earned. The validity of the tier points earned by a consumer can be categorised/ analysed as, static, dynamic, start of the year or anniversary. Consumer can be manually moved from one tier to another. The enterprises can manually add tier points for consumers. Further, multiple tier programs can also be set up and a consumer can be part of more than one tier program. Benefits offered to a consumer such as points multiplier, additional discount, reward categories etc. can be configured for each tier differently.

Redemption: Consumers can redeem anytime through the enterprise's app or through a web access. AI/ML is used to track consumer's usage behaviour and redemption behaviour to make the redemption process contextual and relevant. The system maintains the inventory of rewards and handles inventory management. Unique codes are generated for redemption at merchant outlets with discounts based on merchant and Tier. During redemption in case points are insufficient, consumer can buy points or exchange other partner loyalty points with telco points.

Partners: Multiple partners can be signed up to form an eco-system and onboarded digitally using the platform. Points earned by a consumer with one partner/telco can be spent with any other partner/telco. Points can also be converted using a pre-set ratio and transferred from one partner to another. A periodic mechanism of settlement of points can also be devised between two telcos.

mViva Contextual Loyalty Management Solution also offers programs which include gamification, gifting (From one consumer to another), sharing of points between consumers and vouchers and coupons.

II) Managed Services

While the quality and capabilities of a software platform is extremely critical for the success of the activities, it is equally important to have the expertise and knowledge to use the platform well. This is where our Company adds significant value through managed services covering business consulting, business operations and IT operations. The brief details of these offerings are given below.

A) Business Consulting

This the “brain” of the activities wherein data is analysed, market is studied and appropriate campaigns are designed. The various steps are:

- Data Gathering: collection of data from across the network.
- Data Assessment: assessing and analysing the data to come up with insights.
- Campaign Strategy: appropriate strategy to help the enterprise achieve its objectives

- Campaign Design: designing of each campaign in line with the approved strategy.

B) Business Operations

This is the “brawn” of the activities wherein the campaigns that are designed in the earlier stage are put into action. The various steps are:

- Campaign Configuration: configuring the campaign on the platform.
- Campaign Execution: running/executing the configured campaigns.
- Campaign Monitoring: tracking the progress of the campaign to ensure smooth operation.
- Performance Measurement: measuring the actual performance of each campaign.
- Revenue Impact Reporting: assessing the impact of the campaigns on the revenue.

This is the part wherein the health of the application and the ecosystem is monitored on a 24x7 basis. Given the criticality of the product and its operation for the enterprise, it is essential to ensure that the solution availability is extremely high. Further, inflow of data, processing, communication and other activities need to be monitored continuously to ensure smooth operation. The various steps are:

- Application Monitoring: monitoring of mViva to spot issues, if any.

PROCESS FLOW

The implementation and delivery process flow of mViva platform has been provided below:

Multiple products which are part of the platform are implemented and delivered through the same process which is detailed below.

- Data Gathering: During this activity, we understand the requirements of our customer in detail along with availability of data that is needed to deliver the requirements. These requirements and data are compiled and analysed in detail.
- Preparation of Business Requirements Document (BRD): In this activity, the understanding gathered in the first step is reduced to writing and the detail of each requirement and how it will be delivered is captured. This document is then signed off.

- Preparation of Interface Specifications Document (ISD): Here details of availability of data, their location, format etc. are collated and presented in the form of a document which is then signed off.
- Installation and Testing: In this activity, our product is installed in the computing infrastructure provided by our customer and is tested to ensure smooth performance.
- UAT and Go Live: This is the final step and involves testing by the user i.e. User Acceptance Testing and Go Live by sending campaigns, launching loyalty programs etc.

All these services are delivered by dedicated manpower who are skilled, experienced and trained in the specific activity that they perform. Three groups of people perform business consulting, business operation and IT operations while two other groups perform implementation and support. The activities performed by the first three groups are given above. The implementation team handles the process for the delivery of the products which also has been detailed above. Support is the process wherein any issues or bugs are fixed by the engineering team.

STRENGTHS

In-house technology development and testing capabilities

Owing to the constant efforts of our technical teams, we have developed mViva platform which enables brands to easily integrate our platform with both their in-house technical infrastructure and our expanding partner ecosystem of best-in-class technologies. Our in-house infrastructure consisting of our technical teams and computing environment, run continuous tests to analyse the application of the platform in diverse situations and sectors to test its ability to import data from other systems into any layer of our technology stack via application programming interfaces, or APIs. Further, all the code that is developed by us on a regular basis as part of the new versions that are launched or as part of specific change requests to be delivered to customers are tested for both functional and non functional performance in the computing environment. The computing environment consists of several high end servers and software tools for both development and testing including automation test suites. While the current computing environment has ably supported us over the years, it needs to be expanded significantly to help us address the expanding needs of our customers and the increasing volumes that our platform needs to handle.

Deep Domain Expertise

Developing a software solution which is focused on any specific industry calls for a deep understanding of that industry. Our Company has a large team of experienced professionals who have extensive knowledge about the sectors that we operate in, namely telecom and banking. Our specialised team has enabled us in attracting reputed clientele who rely on our team for both business consulting and business operations.

While, mViva platform has similar usage across all industries, its analysis and execution varies across industries. For instance, execution of campaigning activity in the telecom and banking sector differs on account of various nuances, at the sectoral level. These differences lead to distinctive business requirements and product features for each of our customers. Understanding of the varying requirements of different sectors, owing to the underlying differences in those businesses, has helped us to develop products that are highly suited for our target sectors. Our Company's experts have considerable experience in understanding the aforementioned aspects and therefore are able to contribute and modify the design and implementation of our platform.

End to End Platform

Our Company has developed an extensive platform which is able to cater effectively to the multiple requirements of our customers. For example, in the telco sector, we cover pre-paid, post-paid; consumers, enterprises, retailers; mobile, home broadband, fixed line; scheduled campaigns, trigger campaigns, real time campaigns and various other permutations and combinations. Our platform further addresses customer engagement from multiple angles like campaigning, loyalty programs, lead management etc. The same is applicable to banking sector as well, however with its own sectoral variations.

Highly Referenceable Customers

Our Company has a large customer base spread across diverse geographies. These customers have experienced consistent quality from our Company and therefore have become spokespersons for us and our products. We successfully leverage this base of highly referenceable customers. The fact that most of these customers are leaders in their countries, some being global leaders as well, lends credibility to our Company and our products.

Our platform has a prominent position in various markets, a high growth market with substantial barriers to entry.

We are a prominent player in offering comprehensive customer engagement platform in various countries. As at May 31, 2024, our platform was implemented or being implemented in 38 networks across various countries. Our platform caters effectively to the multiple requirements of our customers. For example, in the telco sector, we cover pre-paid, post-paid; enterprise, retailers; mobile, home broadband, fixed line; scheduled campaigns, trigger campaigns, real time campaigns and various other permutations and combinations. Our platform further addresses customer engagement from multiple angles like campaigning, loyalty programs, lead management etc. The same is applicable to banking as well albeit with its own sectoral variations. We believe that our market presents high barriers to entry given its unique challenges like long sales cycle, complex implementation process and requirement for platforms that are fully end-to-end with deep capabilities, like that of mViva. Therefore, we believe our advanced platform, coupled with deep and long customer relationships across diverse geographies, make us better placed compared to our competitors.

Profitable, low-cost business model built on an asset light, automated and scalable platform

Our platform is the result of over a decade of focused research and development and investment. Our platform is supported by a flexible and scalable infrastructure, built in-house using proprietary technology. Our platform consists of our proprietary machine and deep learning algorithms for prediction and recommendation that operates in real time and at significant scale. As a result, the accuracy of our prediction and recommendation algorithm has improved over time, enabling us to deliver even more precisely targeted and personalised communications. As our ability to generate actions improves with increased user intelligence and targeting, we believe more businesses will use our platform and increase their marketing spend with us. We expect this network effect will continue to fuel our growth. As at March 31, 2024, we had 293 employees.

Growth driven, global customer base

We work with customers who we believe are likely to grow, which we believe will help us to grow in the various countries in which our customers provide services. We offer our services to telecommunication and banking companies who have their operations spread across various countries through its subsidiaries and other companies in the group. We currently work with top telecommunication groups. We have run contextual campaigns for some of the largest telecommunication companies in the world.

Patented Technology

Our Company, through its subsidiary Pelatro Pte, has several registered patents. These patents represent advanced technology which help us in differentiating our platform from our competition and deliver superior value to our customers. Data explosion has become the norm with technological progression from 3G to 4G to 5G. With that comes the huge challenge of collecting, processing, storing, accessing and acting upon humongous amounts of data in real time. Most conventional technologies fail leading to an inability for the customers to leverage the wealth of data that they have access to. Pelatro has stepped into this void by developing patented technology to help our customers improve their experience to the desired level.

Experienced and dedicated Key Management Personnel, who are ably supported by our other employees

We are led by a group of individuals, having a strong background and extensive experience in the contextual marketing industry. OUR BUSINESS STRATEGY

Setting up a new office for centralising our operations

Our Company is a global technology business and have developed a comprehensive Customer Engagement Platform, i.e. mViva that empowers customer-centric interactions between enterprises or brands and its end users. Our platform empowers enterprises to understand the behaviour and needs of their customers deeply with a view to improve their engagement with the end user and to enhance their engagement with end users. Our Customer Engagement Platform mViva collects and processes large amount of data for each enterprise on a daily basis across almost a billion consumers in 30 countries. In order to encompass the increasing scale of operations of our business, we are planning to relocate to new office premise.

Geographic Expansion

Our products have tremendous opportunity in all geographies and the plan is to slowly expand into various territories. Thus, the two fold approach is to target specific geographies and specific telcos and banks within those geographies. The latter is achieved through land and expand strategy. Our Company has pursued a land and expand strategy since the very beginning. We intend to expand our sales and marketing activities to other geographies through our Subsidiary. Hiring and recruiting the intended manpower at different level for the expansion and development of our business activities may require substantial investments and requisite training. Our Board, by way of resolution passed in its meeting dated 18th June 2024 noted the requirement for an amount upto Rs. 1,000 Lacs proposed to be incurred and utilized as expenditure towards expansion of business across geographies. A very large number of telcos, globally, are part of specific groups. These groups have operations in various countries. In land and expand strategy, the plan is to enter the group in one country. Then, we establish our credentials in that operation paving the way to enter the sister telecom operating companies in other countries. This strategy has been extremely effective for our Company. We intend to continue to target larger companies and implement the land and expand strategy to spread our business operations across their sister concerns. The strategy is equally applicable with global banking groups.

Expansion of Recurring Revenue per Customer

We intend to expand our revenue base within each customer. After winning the account with any possible revenue model, the endeavour is to either add a new recurring revenue stream and then to increase it or to increase the existing recurring revenue stream. Our recurring revenue per customer and recurring revenue as a proportion of the total revenue have both been growing steadily. We intend to stay the course on these two fronts which will enhance visibility, predictability and profitability in the coming years.

Service Expansion

While all customers license our products, not all of them procure services from us. This is an opportunity for growth. In March 2018, only one out of the total base of nine customers had taken Managed Services from us. Today, that has increased to 50% of the customers. Thus, our Company has multiple levers for growth and is working on all of them simultaneously. The final piece in the strategy is to enter new sectors apart from telecom and banking. However, that is for the medium to long term period and not for now.

CASE STUDIES

Case Study 1

APAC-based telco significantly improved their campaign ROI and reduced subscriber churn by almost 40% with mViva.

What was expected out of the engagement?

Overview

The operator was looking to modernise its customer engagement with Pelatro's mViva Customer Engagement Platform.

- Achieve better campaign ROI and increase subscriber ARPU.
- Reduce Customer Churn and enhance the engagement rate.
- Have built-in AI/ML capability for heuristic segmentation.
- Get a clear picture of customer needs and wants by improving analytical capabilities.
- Develop citizen data scientists by enabling marketing teams to make data-driven decisions.
- Perform advanced marketing trials using A/B testing and segment of one.

Why mViva was the right choice?

mViva is the most comprehensive customer engagement platform offering campaign, loyalty, and lead management for marketers to target, convert, engage and retain customers in a relevant, personalised and contextual manner in real time.

mViva enabled the operator to analyse customer data by doing deep dive analysis.

mViva allowed the operator to measure campaign performance impact and use insights in real-time.

mViva enabled the operator to use A/B testing to test offers and provide the optimal plan to subscribers.

Changing subscriber behaviour and technology trends pushed the telco to seek a new solution.

Dynamic customer behaviour made it difficult for the telco with basic analytical capabilities to provide personalised experiences.

The legacy campaign management stack could not help deep dive into subscriber data or provide real-time actionable insights.

The existing solution lacked AI/ML capabilities to configure AB testing models, and execute, monitor, and evaluate the campaign's effectiveness.

Results Achieved

Higher penetration of segmented offers in the mid-high ARPU segment, with low offer uptake rate.

Data users increased, by approximately 3K non-data users converted to data users per month.

Reduced churn rate from 8.7% to 5.2% over three months by using predictive modelling.

Case Study 2

Middle Eastern telco witnessed ≈20X Revenue Boost and 85% average monthly Base Coverage with mViva.

Business Objective

The telco sought to invest in a comprehensive customer engagement solution to help the operator plan and execute highly personalised campaigns to increase ARPU and CLV.

Pelatro's mViva Customer Engagement Platform was the perfect choice for the operator looking to transform its customer engagement approach. The telco expected Pelatro to bring its deep domain expertise in customer value management, advanced data analytics, and extensive experience working with several leading telcos globally. Pelatro was also to share its exposure to best practices in the industry to help the operator achieve its business goals.

Approach by Pelatro

As the telecom operator's in-house team had limited exposure to running marketing campaigns on an automated platform, Pelatro was asked to develop a Campaign Management strategy from scratch, which would then lead to the development of appropriate use cases. Further, given Pelatro's domain expertise, the telco also wanted Pelatro to handle campaign configuration and reporting.

Solution

A. Create the CLM Framework

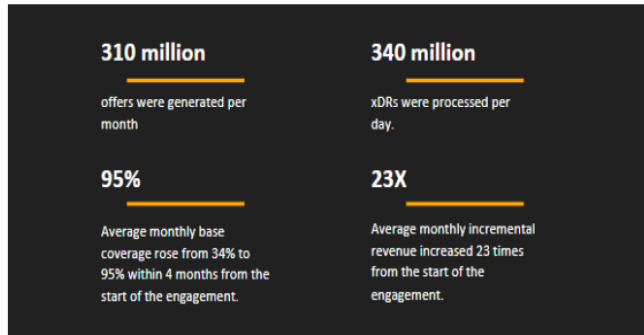

As part of the campaign management strategy development, the Pelatro Managed Services team's priority was to set the CLM framework. The framework consisted of various customer journey phases to understand where the subscribers were in their journey with the telco.

B. Understand areas of intervention and execute appropriate campaigns

Analyse the customer journey phases to identify areas of intervention to design high-performing marketing campaigns. Based on the analysis, the telco promoted Acquisition, Upsell, Cross-sell, Pack expiry, Pack upsells, and Non-user of Voice/Data/Recharge. Pelatro deployed the framework in a phased manner, from 30 campaigns to 200+ campaigns in the prepaid vertical.

Results

mViva has delivered significant results to the telco within a few months of going live.

Case Study 3:

Telco in the Caribbean Deploys AI-ML Driven mViva Contextual Campaign Management to Drive 5% Revenue Impact.

Business Objective

The telco was seeking an AI/ML-based Contextual Campaign Management Solution which could tap into the potential for higher ARPU.

The client sought an all-inclusive campaign management system capable of smart profiling, segmentation, dynamic offer creation, intelligent communication, and real-time campaign performance analysis.

Integrating mViva into the telco's campaign management framework was complex due to the sheer number of integration points, the critical nature of network elements and the variety of transactions. Stitching them together under a single platform was the need of the hour.

Pelatro's end-to-end Contextual Campaign Management Solution was deployed to run one-to-one marketing campaigns based on the division of the subscriber base into micro-segments. The results of the pilot campaign created a benchmark for measuring future outcomes for the telco. Pelatro continues to partner on a "revenue sharing model," meaning the client only pays for assured outcomes in a high-performance environment driven by results.

Deployment & Solutioning

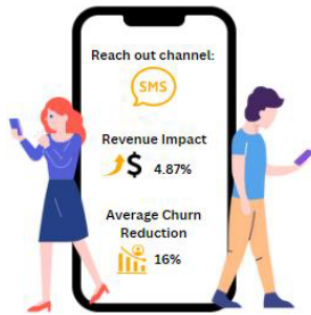

Pre-deployment, a detailed campaign plan and an execution strategy were charted after an intense discussion between the CVM team and Pelatro. The subscriber base was divided into micro-segments based on behavioural characteristics and targeted one-to-one campaigns were designed. A stage-wise approach was planned for campaign deployment, and it was decided to address mid and low-spend customers and inactive customers first. High-income customers were addressed later.

Pelatro implemented the mViva Contextual Campaign Management Solution at the customer site with an end-to-end process consisting of the following:

- Market study
- Solution designing and integration planning
- Data analysis of the last 3 months
- Adapter building and testing
- Hardware, operating system and database configuration
- Installation of mViva software
- Campaign strategy, customer profiling and segmentation
- Configuration, UAT and Go-live
- Tracking performance, measuring results & reporting
- Building and incorporating AI-ML based models

Post-deployment processes were automated to run scheduled campaigns daily, weekly, fortnightly, and monthly based on the policies at the subscriber level. A/B testing was selected to measure improvement in ARPU, and a reduction in Churn Rate and control and target group sizes were identified.

Business Impact

The client's CapEx was only for procuring the hardware. Within weeks of deployment and running campaigns, the project started yielding results measured in real time. A/B testing helped quantify the increase in ARPU, the decrease in the churn rate, and other key parameters.

"Before the arrival of mViva, we had great difficulty launching campaigns and getting detailed information and insights into customer behaviour. Today, we have good control over our campaign activities and the positive revenue impact caused by the solution has given us good momentum. Pelatro is a great partner, and their team is very knowledgeable and supportive."

Case Study 4:

Market Leader replaces Legacy Rewards System by New-age Loyalty Management Solution

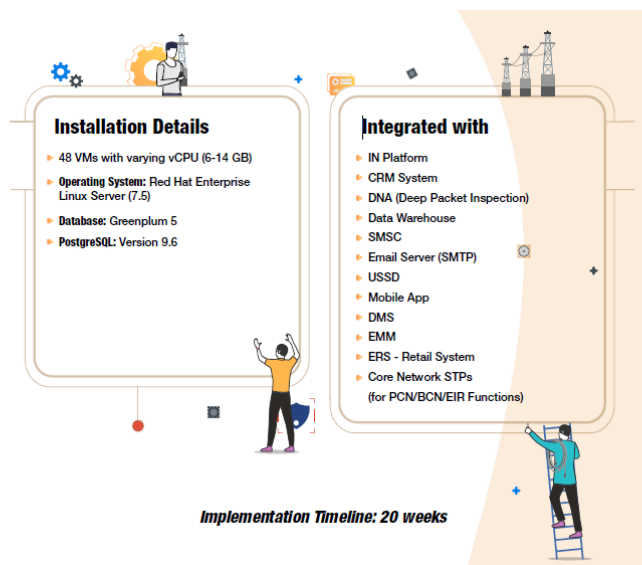

About the Operator

The Southeast Asian telco is one of the largest telecom companies in the country by coverage, and subscriber base. It primarily offers Mobile Telephony, including 4G/LTE, with a coverage of more than 90% of the country's population.

Business Challenge

Before approaching Pelatro for a new-age Loyalty Management solution, the telco relied heavily on an in-house legacy system. With its outdated features, the client was considering substituting it with a feature-rich tool equipped with real-time capabilities.

In-house built legacy systems had started wearing out and there was an immediate need to replace it with a comprehensive platform. The client needed a new-age solution to rejuvenate its Loyalty Management system.

Deployment & Solutioning

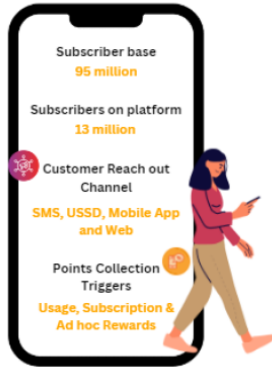

Considering the migration challenges, subscriber base and others, solution architects and integration managers designed a unique plan to implement the solution to cause minimal disruption. Modules were added in a phased manner to maintain stability and scalability.

The platform handles legacy loyalty logic and provides a wide range of new capabilities - personalised rewards and offers, dynamic tiering, flexible points collection triggers, multi-channel/multi-language communications, etc.

Pelatro deployed the mViva LMS at the client's site with an end-to-end process consisting of:

Business Impact

Owing to the project scope, migration challenges, and a large subscriber base, the implementation was done in a phased manner to achieve scalability. New features were added in a phased manner to gain flexibility.

The solution brought true dynamism to the loyalty programmes, enabling the timely capture of potential churners and offering relevant rewards to loyal subscribers based on tiers and usage behaviour. Each subscriber is being monitored and treated contextually from the loyalty perspective – to gain points and spend them efficiently.

Over 13 million subscribers access the Rewards System through multiple channels – SMS, USSD, Mobile App and Web.

Today, the platform has added a level of dynamism allowing the client to analyse each customer (on behaviour) and channel relevant offers. The new platform has enabled campaign managers to identify potential churners and co-create offers to a signed-up base of 13 million delivered across multiple channels.

B. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAWS

Intellectual property rights refer to the general term for intangible, intellectual, industrial property rights through patents, copyrights and trademarks and includes geographical indications, trade secrets, and confidential information. These property rights allow the holder to exercise a monopoly on the use of the item for a specified period.

The Copyright Act, 1957

The Copyright Act, 1957, along with the Copyright Rules, 2013 (“Copyright Laws”) governs copyright protection in India. The Copyright Laws protect the legal rights of the creator of an ‘original work’ by preventing others from reproducing the work in any other way. The intellectual property protected under the Copyright Laws includes literary works, dramatic works, musical works, artistic works, cinematography, and sound recordings. Even while copyright registration is not a prerequisite for acquiring or enforcing a copyright in an otherwise copyrightable work, registration under the Copyright Laws acts as prima facie evidence of the particulars entered therein and helps expedite infringement proceedings and reduce delay caused due to evidentiary considerations. The Copyright Laws prescribe a fine, imprisonment or both for violations, with enhanced penalty on second or subsequent convictions. Upon registration, the copyright protection for a work exists for a period of 60 years following, the demise of the author. Reproduction of a copyrighted work for sale or hire, issuing of copies to the public, performance, or exhibition in public, making a translation of the work, making an adaptation of the work, and making a cinematograph film of the work without consent of the owner of the copyright are all acts which expressly amount to an infringement of copyright.

The Trademarks Act, 1999 (the “Trademarks Act”)

Trademarks enjoy protection under both statutory and common law and Indian trademark law permits the registration of trademarks for both goods and services. The Trademarks Act governs the statutory protection of trademarks and the prevention of the use of fraudulent marks in India. Under the provisions of the Trademarks Act, an application for trademark registration may be made before the Trademark Registry by any person claiming to be the proprietor of a trade mark, whether individual or joint applicants, and can be made on the basis of either actual use or intention to use a trademark in the future. Once granted, a trademark registration is valid for 10 years unless cancelled, subsequent to which, it can be renewed. If not renewed, the mark lapses and the registration is required to be restored. The Trademarks Act prohibits registration of deceptively similar trademarks and provides for penalties for infringement, falsifying and falsely applying trademarks. Further, pursuant to the notification of the Trademark (Amendment) Act, 2010 simultaneous protection of trademark in India and other countries has been made available to owners of Indian and foreign trademarks. The Trademark (Amendment) Act, 2010 also seeks to simplify the law relating to transfer of ownership of trademarks by assignment or transmission and to conform Indian trademark law with international practice.

The Patents Act, 1970 (the “Patents Act”)

The Patents Act recognises both product and process patents and prescribes eligibility criteria for grant of patents, including the requirement that an invention satisfy the requirements of novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability in order for it to avail patent protection. However, the Patents Act also provides that patent protection may not be granted to certain specified types of inventions and materials even if they satisfy such criteria. Application by an Indian resident to any foreign authority in respect of an invention made outside India is prohibited without first making an application for the invention in India. Once granted, a patent remains valid for a period of twenty years from the date of filing of the patent application, subsequent to which it can be renewed. While the Patents Act prohibits patentability of a 'computer programme' as such, computer programmes in combination with a novel hardware are patentable. Computer programmes on their own are excluded from patent protection and are protected as a literary work under the Copyright Act, 1957. In terms of the Patent Act, the patentee holds the exclusive right to prevent third parties from the using, offering for sale, selling or importing for such purposes, the patented product or product obtained directly by a process patented in India.

The Designs Act, 2000 (the "Designs Act")

The Designs Act prescribes for the registration of designs. The Designs Act specifically lays down the essentials of a design to be registered and inter alia, provides for application for registration of designs, copyright in registered designs, etc. A 'Design' means only the features of shape, configuration, pattern, ornament or composition of lines or s or combination thereof applied to any article whether two dimensional or three dimensional or in both forms, by any industrial process or means, whether manual, mechanical or chemical, separate or combined, which in the finished article appeal to and are judged solely by the eye, but does not include any mode or principle or construction or anything which is in substance a mere mechanical device, and expressly excludes works accorded other kinds of protection like property marks, trademarks and copyrights. Any person claiming to be the proprietor of a new or original design may apply for registration of the same before the Controller-General of Patents, Designs and Trade Marks. On registration, the proprietor of the design attains a copyright over the same. The duration of the registration of a design in India is initially ten years from the date of registration. No person may sell, apply for the purpose of sale or import for the purpose of sale any registered design, or fraudulent or obvious imitation thereof.

Municipality Laws

Further, no person shall handle or cause to be handled any hazardous substance except in accordance with such procedure and after complying with such safeguards as may be prescribed. EPA empowers the Central Government to take all measures necessary to protect and improve the environment such as laying down standards for emission or discharge of pollutants, providing for restrictions regarding areas where industries may operate and generally to curb Menon 8.1 Of the receivables, as on the date of these financials, INR 168.76 in Lakhs represents dues towards supply of software and related services rendered to Genexx Private Limited, Nepal which is an export receivable in Indian Rupees. As the Export of service was on behalf of M/s Pelatro Limited, UK, the same has been assigned to that entity as per the Receivable Transfer Agreement dated 2nd February 2024 between Pelatro Limited, UK, Genexx Pvt. Ltd. and Pelatro Limited, India. The management is confident of realizing the entire dues from this entity in the financial year 2024-25 and accordingly, no provision is considered necessary in respect of these amounts. As the assigned receivables are in respect of Export of Services to Nepal, it is opined that there is no requirement of declaration of exports/reporting to regulatory authorities for the delayed realization of export proceeds and no restrictions for assignment of dues.

8.2 In determining the allowance for doubtful trade receivables, the Company has used a practical expedient by computing the expected credit allowance for trade receivables based on a provision matrix. The provision matrix takes into account historical credit loss experience and is adjusted for forward looking information. The expected credit loss allowance is based on the ageing of the receivables that are due and rates used in the provision matrix. This is not applied to receivables that are due from holding company and its subsidiaries.

37. Employee benefit plans

37.1 Defined contribution plans

The employees of the Company are members of a state-managed retirement benefit plan operated by the government. The Company is required to contribute a specified percentage of payroll costs to the retirement benefit scheme to fund the benefits. The only obligation of the Company with respect to the retirement benefit plan is to make the specified contributions.

During the period, the Company has recognized the following amount in the Profit and Loss Account-

Particulars	Consolidated		Standalone
	31-Mar-24	31-Mar-24	31-Mar-23	31-Mar-22
Employers' Contribution to Provident Fund	122.25	122.25	106.09	85.13
Employers' Contribution to Employee state insurance scheme	0.21	0.21	0.49	0.41

37.2 Defined benefit plans

The Company provides for gratuity for employees as per the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972. Employees who are in continuous service of 5 years are eligible for gratuity under this Act. The amount of gratuity payable on termination / retirement is the last drawn basic salary per month of the employee proportionate for a period of 15 days per completed year of service. During the year 2017, the Company had constituted a Group Gratuity Trust and the above liability is funded through the Group Gratuity Trust with Life Insurance Corporation of India.

These plans typically expose the Group to actuarial risks such as: Actuarial Risk, Investment Risk, Liquidity Risk, Market Risk & Legislative Risk.

Actuarial Risk	It is the risk that benefits will cost more than expected. This can arise due to one of the following reasons: Adverse Salary Growth Experience: Salary hikes that are higher than the assumed salary escalation will result into an increase in Obligation at a rate that is higher than expected. Variability in mortality rates: If actual mortality rates are higher than assumed mortality rate assumption than the Gratuity Benefits will be paid earlier than expected. Since there is no condition of vesting on the death benefit, the acceleration of cashflow will lead to an actuarial loss or gain depending on the relative values of the assumed salary growth and discount rate. Variability in withdrawal rates: If actual withdrawal rates are higher than assumed withdrawal rate assumption than the Gratuity Benefits will be paid earlier than expected. The impact of this will depend on whether the benefits are vested as at the resignation date.
Investment Risk	For funded plans that rely on insurers for managing the assets, the value of assets certified by the insurer may not be the fair value of instruments backing the liability. In such cases, the present value of the assets is independent of the future discount rate. This can result in wide fluctuations in the net liability or the funded status if there are significant changes in the discount rate during the inter valuation period
Liquidity Risk	Employees with high salaries and long durations or those higher in hierarchy, accumulate significant level of benefits. If some of such employees resign/retire from the company there can be strain on the cashflows
Market Risk	Market risk is a collective term for risks that are related to the changes and fluctuations of the financial markets. One actuarial assumption that has a material effect is the discount rate. The discount rate reflects the time value of money. An increase in discount rate leads to decrease in Defined Benefit Obligation of the plan benefits & vice versa. This assumption depends on the yields on the corporate/ government bonds and hence the valuation of liability is exposed to fluctuations in the yields as at the valuation date
Legislative Risk	Legislative risk is the risk of increase in the plan liabilities or reduction in the plan assets due to change in the legislation/regulation. The government may amend the Payment of Gratuity Act thus requiring the companies to pay higher benefits to the employees. This will directly affect the present value of the Defined Benefit Obligation and the same will have to be recognized immediately in the year when any such amendment is effective

Significant actuarial assumptions for the determination of the defined obligation are discount rate, expected salary increase and mortality. The sensitivity analyses below have been determined based on reasonably possible changes of the respective assumptions occurring at the end of the reporting period, while holding all other assumptions constant.

	01-Apr-23 to 31-Mar-24	01-Apr-23 to 31-Mar-24	01-Apr-22 to 31-Mar-23	01-Apr-21 to 31-Mar-22

Subash Menon (Expenses)	231.09	231.09	160.24	137.44

The sensitivity analysis presented above may not be representative of the actual change in the defined benefit obligation as it is unlikely that the change in assumptions would occur in isolation of one another as some of the assumptions may be correlated.

Furthermore, in presenting the above sensitivity analysis, the present value of the defined benefit obligation has been calculated using the projected unit credit method at the end of the reporting period, which is the same as that applied in calculating the defined benefit obligation liability recognised in the balance sheet.

38. Segment reporting

(a) Operating segment

Ind AS 108 'Operating Segments' (Ind AS 108) establishes standards for the way that business enterprises report information about operating segments and related disclosures about revenue, geographic areas and major customers. Based on the 'management approach' as defined in Ind AS 108, the Managing Director monitors and reviews the operating results of the Group as one segment i.e., 'Software Solutions for various aspects of Precision Marketing'. Since the entire business falls within a single operational segment, these restated consolidated and standalone financial information are reflecting the information required by Ind AS 108

Note 39: Financial risk management objectives and policies

The Group's principal financial liabilities comprise loans and borrowings, trade and other payables. The main purpose of these financial liabilities is to finance and support Group's operations. The Group's principal financial assets include trade and other receivables, cash and cash equivalents and refundable deposits that derive directly from its operations.

The Group is exposed to market risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. The Group's senior management oversees the management of these risks. The Board of Directors reviews and agrees policies for managing each of these risks, which are summarized below.

(i) Market Risk:

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises two types of risk: interest rate risk and other price risk, such as commodity risk. Financial instruments affected by market risk include loans and borrowings and refundable deposits. The sensitivity analysis in the following sections relate to the position as at March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023. The sensitivity analysis have been prepared on the basis that the amount of net debt and the ratio of fixed to floating interest rates of the debt

The analysis excludes the impact of movements in market variables on the carrying values of gratuity and other post retirement obligations; provisions.

The below assumption has been made in calculating the sensitivity analysis:

(ii) Interest Rate Risk:

interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Group's short-term debt obligations with floating interest rates.

The Group manages its interest rate risk by having a balanced portfolio of variable rate borrowings. The Group does not enter into any interest rate swaps.

Interest rate sensitivity

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates on that portion of loans and borrowings affected. With all other variables held constant, the Group's profit before tax is affected through the impact on floating rate borrowings, as follows:

Consolidated	Increase/decrease in interest rate	Effect on profit before tax

(iii) Credit Risk:

Credit risk is the risk that counterparty will not meet its obligations under a financial instrument or customer contract, leading to a financial loss. The credit risk arises principally from its operating activities (primarily trade receivables) and from its investing activities, including deposits with banks and financial institutions and other financial instruments.

Credit risk is controlled by analysing credit limits and creditworthiness of customers on a continuous basis to whom credit has been granted after obtaining necessary approvals for credit. The collection from the trade receivables are monitored on a continuous basis by the receivables team. The Group establishes an allowance for credit loss that represents its estimate of expected losses in respect of trade and other receivables based on the past and the recent collection trend.

Credit risk on cash and cash equivalent is limited as the Group generally transacts with banks and financial institutions with high credit ratings assigned by international and domestic credit rating agencies.

(iv) Liquidity Risk:

The Group's objective is to maintain a balance between continuity of funding and flexibility through the use of bank deposits and loans. The table below summarises the maturity profile of the Group's financial liabilities based on contractual undiscounted payments:

Notes to first time adoption:A Leases - Company as Lessee

Ind AS 116 requires the company to recognise right-of-use asset representing its right to use the underlying asset for the lease term at the lease commencement date. The right-of-use asset is depreciated using the straight-line method from the commencement date over the shorter of lease term or useful life of right-of-use asset.

The receipts from the lessee are structured to increase in line with expected general inflation to compensate for the lessor's expected inflationary cost increases.

Lease payments are apportioned between finance costs and reduction of the lease obligation so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability. Finance costs are recognised in statement of profit and loss over the lease period.

Consequent to this change, right-of-use asset for INR 23.36 Lakhs has been created with a corresponding credit to Lease Liability as at 31 March 2023. The profit for the year and total equity as at 31 March 2019 decreased by INR 9.77 Lakhs due to amortisation of right-of-use asset & finance cost of INR 1.64 Lakhs.

B Borrowings

Ind AS 109 requires transaction costs incurred towards origination of borrowings to be deducted from the carrying amount of borrowings on initial recognition. These costs are recognised in the profit or loss over the tenure of the borrowing as part of the interest expense by applying the effective rate of interest.

Under previous GAAP, these transaction costs were charged to statement of profit and loss as and when incurred. Consequently borrowings as at 31 March 2019 have been reduced by INR 1.00 Lakhs with a corresponding adjustment to processing fee and rates & taxes. The interest cost on borrowings is charged to Profit & Loss for INR 6.44 Lakhs

PELATRO LIMITED

(Formerly known as Pelatro Private Limited)

C Remeasurements of post-employment benefit obligations

Under Ind AS, remeasurements i.e. actuarial gains and losses and the return on plan assets, excluding amounts included in the net interest expense on the net defined benefit liability are recognised in other comprehensive income instead of profit or loss. Under the previous GAAP, these remeasurements were forming part of the profit or loss for the year. As a result of this change, the profit for the year ended March 31, 2019 decreased by INR 1.68 Lakhs.

D Deferred tax

Adjustments to deferred tax reflect changes in other equity consequent to the above Ind AS adjustments.

E Other equity

Other equity as at April 1, 2022 and March 31, 2023 has been adjusted consequent to the above Ind AS transition adjustments.

PELATRO LIMITED

(Formerly Pelatro Private Limited)

CIN: U72100KA2013PLC068239

Notes to Restated Financial Information

a) Principles of Consolidation

(i) Subsidiaries:

Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Group. The Group controls an entity when it is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. The financial statements of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date on which controls commences until the date on which control ceases.

(ii) Loss of Control:

When the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it de-recognises the assets and liabilities of the subsidiary. Any interest retained in the former subsidiary is measured at fair value at the date the control is lost. Any resulting gain or loss is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss

(iii) Transaction Eliminated on Consolidation:

The financial statements of the Company and its Subsidiaries, used in the consolidation procedure are drawn up to the same reporting date. The financial statements of the Company and its subsidiary companies are combined on a line-by-line basis by adding together of like items of assets, liabilities, income and expenses, after eliminating material intra-group balances and intra-group transactions and resulting unrealised profits or losses on intra-group transactions. Unrealised losses are eliminated in the same way as unrealised gains, but only to the extent that there is no evidence of impairment.

(iv) Foreign Operations:

For the purpose of consolidation, the assets and liabilities of the Group's foreign operations are translated to Indian Rupees at the exchange rate prevailing on the Statement of Assets and Liabilities date, and the income and expenses at the average rate of exchange. Exchange differences arising on such translation are recognised as foreign currency translation reserve under equity. Exchange differences arising from the translation of a foreign operation previously recognised in currency translation reserve in equity are not reclassified from equity to profit or loss until the disposal of the operation

b) Basis of measurement

The Restated Financial Information have been prepared on a going concern basis. The accounting policies are applied consistently to all the periods presented in the Restated Financial Information except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires change in accounting policy hitherto in use.

The Restated Financial Information have been prepared on accrual basis and under historical cost convention, except for certain financial assets and liabilities, which are measured at fair value.

The functional and presentation currency of the Group is Indian Rupee ("INR") which is the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Group operates. All amounts disclosed in the Restated Financial Information and notes have been rounded off to the nearest "Lakhs" with two decimals, unless otherwise stated. Transactions and balances with values below the rounding off norm adopted by the Group have been reflected as "0" in the relevant notes to Restated Financial Information.

c) Use of estimates and judgements

The preparation of the Group's Restated Financial Information in conformity with the recognition and measurement principles of Ind AS requires management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses, the accompanying disclosures and disclosures of contingent liabilities. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Uncertainty about these estimates and assumptions could result in outcomes that require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities affected in future periods. The application of accounting policies that require critical accounting estimates involving complex and subjective judgments and the use of assumption in these Restated Financial Information have been disclosed below. Appropriate changes in estimates are made as management becomes aware of changes in circumstances surrounding the estimates. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future periods affected.

PELATRO LIMITED

(Formerly Pelatro Private Limited)

CIN: U72100KA2013PLC068239

Notes to Restated Financial Information

Critical accounting estimates and judgments used are as below:

- (i) Defined benefit obligation
- (ii) (ii) Recognition of current tax and deferred tax
- (iii) (iii) Recognition and measurement of provisions and contingencies
- (iv) (iv) Fair value measurement of Financial instruments
- (v) (v) Provision for Doubtful Debts and advances

Significant accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions used by management are as below:

- Fair value measurements (Refer note B)
- Identification of leases involving the recognition of a Right of Use asset and its accounting including the adoption of an appropriate discounting rate (Refer note E).
- Useful lives of Property, Plant and Equipment, Investment Property and Intangible Assets (Refer notes G & I).

Current versus non-current classification

The Company presents assets and liabilities in the balance sheet based on current / non-current classification. An asset is treated as current when it is:

- Expected to be realized or intended to be sold or consumed in normal operating cycle
- Held primarily for the purpose of trading
- Expected to be realized within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period

All other assets are classified as non-current.

A liability is current when:

- It is expected to be settled in normal operating cycle
- It is held primarily for the purpose of trading
- It is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period

The Company classifies all other liabilities as non-current.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities.

The operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realization in cash and cash equivalents. The Company has identified twelve months as its operating cycle.

C. SUBSIDIARY COMPANY'S GOING CONCERN

The Subsidiary's current liabilities exceeded its current assets by Rs.2,639,05 [in Lakhs] and net capital deficiency of Rs.1,895,73 [in Lakhs]. These events or conditions indicate that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the subsidiary's ability to continue as a going concern.

The ability of the Subsidiary to continue as a going concern is dependent on the undertaking of its holding company, to provide continuing financial support to enable the subsidiary to meet its liabilities as and when they fall due. The holding company has agreed not to recall the balances until the Company's cash flow permit.

If the subsidiary is unable to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future, the subsidiary may be unable to discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business and adjustments may have to be made to reflect the situation that assets may need to be realised other than in the normal course of business and at amounts which could differ significantly from the amounts at which they are currently recorded in the statement of financial position. In addition, the subsidiary may have to reclassify non-current assets and liabilities as current assets and liabilities. No such adjustments have been made to these financial statements.

D. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date, regardless of whether that price is directly

PELATRO LIMITED

(Formerly Pelatro Private Limited)

CIN: U72100KA2013PLC068239

Notes to Restated Financial Information

observable or estimated using another valuation technique. In estimating the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Company takes into account the characteristics of the asset or liability if market participants would take those characteristics into account when pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date. Fair value for measurement and/or disclosure purposes in these financial statements is determined on such a basis, except for leasing transactions that are within the scope of Ind AS 116, and measurements that have some similarities to fair value but are not fair value, such as net realisable value in Ind AS 2 or value in use in Ind AS 36.

In addition, for financial reporting purposes, fair value measurements are categorised into Level 1, 2, or 3 based on the degree to which the inputs to the fair value measurements are observable and the significance of the inputs to the fair value measurement in its entirety, which are described as follows:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date;
- Level 2 inputs are inputs, other than quoted prices included within Level 1, that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

E. CASH FLOW STATEMENTS

Cash flows are reported using indirect method, whereby net profits / (loss) before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments and items of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from regular revenue generating (operating activities), investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated based on the available information.

F. REVENUE RECOGNITION

Revenue from contracts with customers

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognised when control of the goods or services are transferred to the customer at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. Revenue is measured based on the transaction price, which is the consideration, adjusted for discounts and other credits, if any, as specified in the contract with the customer. The Company presents revenue from contracts with customers net of indirect taxes in its statement of profit and loss.

The Company considers whether there are other promises in the contract that are separate performance obligations to which a portion of the transaction price needs to be allocated. In determining the transaction price, the Company considers the effects of variable consideration, the existence of significant financing components, non-cash consideration, and consideration payable to the customer (if any).

The Company recognises revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. A 5-step approach is used to recognise revenue as below:

- Step 1: Identify the contract(s) with a customer
- Step 2: Identify the performance obligation in the contract
- Step 3: Determine the transaction price
- Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract
- Step 5: Recognise revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation

G. LEASES

The Company as a Lessee

The Company evaluates if an arrangement qualifies to be a lease as per the requirements of Ind AS 116. Identification of a lease requires significant judgment. The Company uses significant judgement in assessing the lease term (including anticipated renewals) and the applicable discount rate. The Company determines the lease term as the non-cancellable period of a lease, together with both periods covered by an option to extend the lease if the Company is reasonably certain to exercise that option and periods covered by an option to terminate the lease if the Company is reasonably certain not to exercise that option. In assessing whether the Company is reasonably certain to exercise an option to extend a lease, or not to exercise an option to terminate a lease, it considers all relevant facts and circumstances that create an economic incentive for the Company to exercise the option to extend the lease, or not to exercise the option to terminate the lease.

PELATRO LIMITED

(Formerly Pelatro Private Limited)

CIN: U72100KA2013PLC068239

Notes to Restated Financial Information

The Company recognises right-of-use asset representing its right to use the underlying asset for the lease term at the lease commencement date. The cost of the right-of-use asset measured at inception shall comprise the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received, plus any initial direct costs incurred and an estimate of costs to be incurred by the lessee in dismantling and removing the underlying asset or restoring the underlying asset or site on which it is located.

The right-of-use assets is subsequently measured at cost less any accumulated depreciation, accumulated impairment losses, if any and adjusted for any re-measurement of the lease liability. The right-of-use asset is depreciated using the straight-line method from the commencement date over the shorter of lease term or useful life of right-of-use asset. The receipts from the lessee are structured to increase in line with expected general inflation to compensate for the lessor's expected inflationary cost increases. If receipts from the lessee vary because of factors other than general inflation, then this condition is not met. The estimated useful lives of right-of-use assets are determined based on the lease period. Right-of-use assets are tested for impairment whenever there is any indication that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. Impairment loss, if any, is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Lease payments are apportioned between finance costs and reduction of the lease obligation so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability. Finance costs are recognised in statement of profit and loss over the lease period.

H. BORROWING COSTS

Borrowing costs (net of interest income on temporary investments) that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset are capitalized as part of the cost of the respective asset till such time the asset is ready for its intended use or sale. A qualifying asset is an asset which necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale. Ancillary cost of borrowings in respect of loans not disbursed are carried forward and accounted as borrowing cost in the year of disbursement of loan. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they occur. Borrowing costs consist of interest expenses calculated as per Effective Rate of Interest (EIR) method, exchange difference arising from foreign currency borrowings to the extent they are treated as an adjustment to the borrowing cost and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds.

EIR is the rate that exactly discounts the estimated future cash payments or receipts over the expected life of the financial liability or a shorter period, where appropriate, to the amortised cost of a financial liability after considering all the contractual terms of the financial instrument.

I. PROPERTY, PLANT & EQUIPMENT

On transition to Ind AS, the Company has elected to continue with the carrying value of all of its property, plant and equipment recognised as at April 1, 2022 measured as per the previous GAAP and use that carrying value as the deemed cost of the property, plant and equipment.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. Cost of the asset includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition and installation, including interest on borrowing for the project / property, plant & equipment up to the date the asset is put to use. Any cost incurred relating to settlement of claims regarding titles to the properties is accounted for and capitalised as incurred.

Depreciation method, estimated useful lives and residual values

Depreciation on property, plant and equipment is provided using the straight-line method of depreciation over the useful life of the assets estimated by the Management. The Management has estimated the life of the property, plant and equipment as under.

Asset	Useful Life (Years)
Office Equipment	5
Computers & Laptops	3
Software	9

De-recognition

An item of property, plant and equipment and any significant part initially recognised is de-recognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on de-recognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the statement of profit and loss when the asset is de-recognised.

J. CAPITAL WORK-IN-PROGRESS

Projects under which tangible assets are not yet ready for their intended use are carried at cost comprising direct cost, related incidental expenses and attributable borrowing costs.

Depreciation is not provided on capital work-in-progress until construction and installation are complete and the asset is ready for its intended use.

K. INTANGIBLE ASSETS

On transition to IND AS, the Company has elected to continue with the carrying value of all of its Intangible assets recognised as at April 1, 2022, measured as per the previous GAAP, and use that carrying value as the deemed cost of such Intangible assets.

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less any accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses. Internally generated intangibles, excluding capitalised development costs, are not capitalised and the related expenditure is reflected in profit or loss in the period in which the expenditure is incurred.

The useful lives of intangible assets are assessed as 9 years and the same shall be amortised on straight-line basis over its useful life.

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives are not amortized, but are tested for impairment at each year end either individually or at the cash generating unit level. The assessment of indefinite life is reviewed annually to determine whether the indefinite life continues to be supportable. If not, the change in useful life from indefinite to finite is made on a prospective basis.

De-recognition

Gains or losses arising from de-recognition of an intangible asset are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognized in the income statement when the asset is derecognized.

L. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Initial recognition

The Company recognizes financial assets and financial liabilities when it becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. All financial assets and liabilities are recognized at fair value on initial recognition, except for trade receivables which are initially measured at transaction price. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities that are not at fair value through Statement of Profit and Loss, are added to the fair value on initial recognition. Regular way purchase and sale of financial assets are accounted for at trade date.

Subsequent measurement

a. Non-derivative financial instruments

Financial assets carried at amortised cost

A financial asset is subsequently measured at amortised cost if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Notes to Restated Financial Information

A financial asset is subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding. Further, in cases where the Company has made an irrevocable election based on its business model, for its investments which are classified as equity instruments, the subsequent changes in fair value are recognized in other comprehensive income.

Financial assets at fair value through profit and loss (FVTPL)

A financial asset which is not classified in any of the above categories is subsequently fair-valued through Statement of Profit and Loss.

Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method, except for contingent consideration recognized in a business combination which is subsequently measured at fair value through Statement of Profit and Loss. For trade and other payables maturing within one year from the Balance Sheet date, the carrying amounts approximate the fair value due to the short maturity of these instruments.

Investments in Subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates

Investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates are carried at cost in the financial statements.

b. Share Capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issuance of new ordinary shares are recognized as a deduction from equity, net of any tax effects.

Derecognition of financial instruments

The Company derecognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire or it transfers the financial asset and the transfer qualifies for derecognition under Ind AS 109. A financial liability (or a part of a financial liability) is derecognized from the Company's Balance Sheet when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expires.

Impairment of financial assets

The Company recognizes loss allowances using the Expected Credit Loss (ECL) model for the financial assets which are not fair valued through Statement of Profit and Loss. Loss allowance for trade receivables with no significant financing component is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECL. For all other financial assets, expected credit losses are measured at an amount equal to the 12-month ECL, unless there has been a significant increase in credit risk from initial recognition in which case those are measured at lifetime ECL. The amount of expected credit losses (or reversal) that is required to adjust the loss allowance at the reporting date to the amount that is required to be recognized, is recognised as an impairment gain or loss in Statement of Profit and Loss.

M. PROVISIONS AND CONTINGENCIES

A provision is recognised when the Company has a present obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions (excluding retirement benefits) are not discounted to their present value and are determined based on the best estimate required to settle the obligation at the Balance Sheet date. These are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates.

A contingent liability is a possible obligation that arises from past events whose existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events beyond the control of the Company or a present obligation that is not recognized because it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation. A contingent liability also arises in extremely rare cases where there is a liability that cannot be recognized because it cannot be measured reliably. The Company does not recognize a contingent liability but discloses its existence in the financial statements.

N. FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSLATION

Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of the Company are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Company operates ('the functional currency').

PELATRO LIMITED

(Formerly Pelatro Private Limited)

CIN: U72100KA2013PLC068239

Notes to Restated Financial Information

The financial statements are presented in Indian rupee (INR), which is the Company's functional and presentation currency.

Foreign currency transactions and balances

- i. Initial recognition—Foreign currency transactions are recorded in the reporting currency, by applying to the foreign currency amount the exchange rate between the reporting currency and the foreign currency at the date of the transaction.
- ii. Conversion—Foreign currency monetary items are retranslated using the exchange rate prevailing at the reporting date. Non-monetary items, which are measured in terms of historical cost denominated in a foreign currency, are reported using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction. Non-monetary items, which are measured at fair value or other similar valuation denominated in a foreign currency, are translated using the exchange rate at the date when such value was determined.
- iii. Exchange differences—The Company accounts for exchange differences arising on translation/settlement of foreign currency monetary items as income or as expense in the period in which they arise.

O. INCOME TAXES

Income tax expense comprises current tax expense and the net change in the deferred tax asset or liability during the year. Current and deferred tax are recognized in the statement of profit and loss, except when they relate to items that are recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

i. Current income tax

Current income tax for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities based on the taxable income for that period. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date.

ii. Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is recognized on temporary differences at the balance sheet date between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes, except when the deferred income tax arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss at the time of the transaction.

Deferred income tax assets are recognized for all deductible temporary differences, carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses, to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilized.

The carrying amount of deferred income tax assets is reviewed at each balance sheet date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred income tax asset to be utilized.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the asset is realized or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date.

The Company offsets tax assets and liabilities if and only if it has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets and current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same tax authority.

Deferred tax relating to items recognized outside profit or loss is recognized outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity).

Deferred tax items are recognized in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity.

Notes to Restated Financial Information

P. EARNINGS PER SHARE

Earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit / (loss) after tax (including the post-tax effect of extraordinary items, if any) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit / (loss) after tax (including the post-tax effect of extraordinary items, if any) as adjusted for dividend, interest and other charges to expense or income relating to dilutive potential equity shares, by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving the basic earnings per share and also the weighted average number of equity shares which could have been issued on the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares. Potential equity shares are deemed to be dilutive only if their conversion to equity shares would decrease the net profit per share and are deemed to be converted at the beginning of the period, unless they have been issued at a later date.

Q. EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

- i. Retirement benefits in the form of Provident Fund and Pension Schemes are charged on an accrual basis to the Profit and Loss Account of the year when the contributions to the respective funds are due. There are no other obligations other than the contribution payable to the Regional Provident Fund Commissioner.
- ii. For defined benefit retirement plans, the cost of providing benefits is determined using the projected unit credit method, with actuarial valuations being carried out at the end of each annual reporting period. Remeasurement, comprising actuarial gains and losses, the effect of the changes to the asset ceiling (if applicable) is reflected immediately in the balance sheet with a charge or credit recognised in other comprehensive income in the period in which they occur. Remeasurement recognised in other comprehensive income is reflected immediately in retained earnings and is not reclassified to statement of profit and loss. Past service cost is recognised in statement of profit and loss in the period of a plan amendment. Net interest is calculated by applying the discount rate at the beginning of the period to the net defined benefit liability or asset.
- iii. The Company has a policy on compensated absences which are both accumulating and non-accumulating in nature. The expected cost of accumulating compensated absences is determined by actuarial valuation performed by an independent actuary at each balance sheet date using the projected unit credit method on the additional amount expected to be paid/availed as a result of the unused entitlement that has accumulated at the balance sheet date. Expense on non-accumulating compensated absences is recognised in the period in which the absences occur.

R. Contingent liabilities & contingent assets

A disclosure for a contingent liability is made when there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may, but probably will not, require an outflow of resources. Where there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

Contingent assets are not recognised in the financial statements. However, contingent assets are assessed continually and if it is virtually certain that an inflow of economic benefits will arise, the asset and related income are recognised in the period in which the change occurs.

Financial risk management objectives and policies

The Group's principal financial liabilities comprise loans and borrowings, trade and other payables. The main purpose of these financial liabilities is to finance and support Group's operations. The Group's principal financial assets include trade and other receivables, cash and cash equivalents and refundable deposits that derive directly from its operations.

The Group is exposed to market risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. The Group's senior management oversees the management of these risks. The Board of Directors reviews and agrees policies for managing each of these risks, which are summarized below.

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk that counterparty will not meet its obligations under a financial instrument or customer contract, leading to a financial loss. The credit risk arises principally from its operating activities (primarily trade receivables) and from its investing activities, including deposits with banks and financial institutions and other financial instruments.

Credit risk is controlled by analysing credit limits and creditworthiness of customers on a continuous basis to whom credit has been granted after obtaining necessary approvals for credit. The collection from the trade receivables are monitored on a continuous basis by the receivables team. The Group establishes an allowance for credit loss that represents its estimate of expected losses in respect of trade and other receivables based on the past and the recent collection trend.

Credit risk on cash and cash equivalent is limited as the Group generally transacts with banks and financial institutions with high credit ratings assigned by international and domestic credit rating agencies.

Market Risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises two types of risk: interest rate risk and other price risk, such as commodity risk. Financial instruments affected by market risk include loans and borrowings and refundable deposits. The sensitivity analysis in the following sections relate to the position as at March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023. The sensitivity analysis have been prepared on the basis that the amount of net debt and the ratio of fixed to floating interest rates of the debt

The analysis excludes the impact of movements in market variables on the carrying values of gratuity and other post retirement obligations; provisions.

The below assumption has been made in calculating the sensitivity analysis:

Interest Rate Risk:

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Group's short-term debt obligations with floating interest rates.

The Group manages its interest rate risk by having a balanced portfolio of variable rate borrowings. The Group does not enter into any interest rate swaps.

Phased implementation of Unified Payments Interface

SEBI issued UPI Circulars in relation to streamlining the process of public issue of equity shares and convertibles. Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, UPI has been introduced in a phased manner as a payment mechanism (in addition to mechanism of blocking funds in the account maintained with SCSBs under ASBA) for applications by RIIs through intermediaries with the objective to reduce the time duration from public issue closure to listing from six Working Days to up to three Working Days. Considering the time required for making necessary changes to the systems and to ensure complete and smooth transition to the UPI Mechanism, the UPI Circulars proposes to introduce and implement the UPI Mechanism in three phases in the following manner:

- a) Phase I: This phase was applicable from January 01, 2019, and lasted till June 30, 2019. Under this phase, a Retail Individual Bidder, besides the modes of Bidding available prior to the UPI Circulars, also had the option to submit the Bid cum Application Form with any of the intermediary and use his / her UPI ID for the purpose of blocking of funds. The time duration from public issue closure to listing continued to be six Working Days.

- b) Phase II: This phase commenced with effect from July 01, 2019, and will continue for a period of three months or floating of five main board public issues, whichever is later. Under this phase, submission of the Bid cum Application Form by a Retail Individual Investor through intermediaries to SCSBs for blocking of funds has been discontinued and has been replaced by the UPI Mechanism. However, the time duration from public issue closure to listing continues to be six Working Days during this phase. SEBI vide its circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2020/50 dated March 30, 2020, extended the timeline for implementation of UPI Phase II till further notice.
- c) Phase III/T+3: This phase has become applicable on a voluntary basis for all issues opening on or after September 1, 2023, and on a mandatory basis for all issues opening on or after December 1, 2023, vide T+3 Press Release. In this phase, the time duration from public issue closure to listing has been reduced to three Working Days. The Issue shall be undertaken pursuant to the processes and procedures as notified in the T+3 Press Release as applicable, subject to any circulars, clarification or notification issued by SEBI from time to time, including any circular, clarification or notification which may be issued by SEBI.

Pursuant to the UPI Circular, SEBI has set out specific requirements for redressal of investor grievances for applications that have been made through the UPI Mechanism. The requirements of the UPI Circular include, appointment of a nodal officer by the SCSB and submission of their details to SEBI, the requirement for SCSBs to send SMS alerts for the blocking and unblocking of UPI mandates, the requirement for the Registrar to submit details of cancelled, withdrawn or deleted applications, and the requirement for the bank accounts of unsuccessful Bidders to be unblocked not later than one day from the date on which the Basis of Allotment is finalized. Failure to unblock the accounts within the timeline would result in the SCSBs being penalised under the relevant securities law. Additionally, if there is any delay in the redressal of investors complaints in this regard, the relevant SCSB as well as the post – Issue BRLM will be required to compensate the concerned investor.

All SCSBs offering the facility of making applications in public issues shall also provide the facility to make application using UPI. The Company were required to appoint one of the SCSBs as a Sponsor Bank to act as a conduit between the Stock Exchanges and NPCI in order to facilitate collection of requests and/ or payment instructions of the Retail Individual Bidders using the UPI.

RESTRICTIONS ON FOREIGN OWNERSHIP OF INDIAN SECURITIES

Foreign investment in Indian securities is regulated through the Industrial Policy, 1991 of the Government of India and Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 (“FEMA”). While the Industrial Policy, 1991 prescribes the limits and the conditions subject to which foreign investment can be made in different sectors of the Indian economy, FEMA regulates the precise manner in which such investment may be made. Under the Industrial Policy, unless specifically restricted, foreign investment is freely permitted in all sectors of Indian economy up to any extent and without any prior approvals, but the foreign investor is required to follow certain prescribed procedures for making such investment. The government bodies responsible for granting foreign investment approvals are the Reserve Bank of India (“RBI”) and Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India (“DIPP”).

The Government of India, from time to time, has made policy pronouncements on Foreign Direct Investment (“FDI”) through press notes and press releases. The Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India (“DIPP”), has issued consolidated FDI Policy Circular of 2017 (“FDI Policy 2017”), which with effect from August 28, 2017, consolidates and supersedes all previous press notes, press releases and clarifications on FDI Policy issued by the DIPP that were in force. The Government proposes to update the consolidated circular on FDI policy once every year and therefore, FDI Policy 2017 will be valid until the DIPP issues an updated circular. The RBI also issues Master Circular on Foreign Investment in India every year. Presently, FDI in India is being governed by Master Circular on Foreign Investment dated July 01, 2015 as updated from time to time by RBI. In terms of the Master Circular, an Indian company may issue fresh shares to people resident outside India (who is eligible to make investments in India, for which eligibility criteria are as prescribed). Such fresh issue of shares shall be subject to inter-alia, the pricing guidelines prescribed under the Master Circular. The Indian company making such fresh issue of shares would be subject to the reporting requirements, inter-alia with respect to consideration for issue of shares and also subject to making certain filings including filing of Form FC-GPR.

Under the current FDI Policy of 2017, foreign direct investment in micro and small enterprises is subject to sectoral caps, entry routes and other sectoral regulations. At present 100 % foreign direct investment through automatic route is permitted in the sector in which our Company operates. Therefore applicable foreign investment up to 100% is permitted in our company under automatic route.

In case of investment in sectors through Government Route approval from competent authority as mentioned in Chapter 4 of the FDI Policy 2017 has to be obtained by the Company. The transfer of shares between an Indian resident to a non-resident does not require the prior approval of the RBI, subject to fulfilment of certain conditions as specified by DIPP/RBI, from time to time. Such conditions include: (i) where the transfer of shares requires the prior approval of the Government as per the extant FDI policy provided that: a) the requisite approval of the Government has been obtained; and b) the transfer of shares adheres with the pricing guidelines and documentation requirements as specified by the Reserve Bank of India from time to time.; (ii) where the transfer of shares attract SEBI (SAST) Regulations subject to the adherence with the pricing guidelines and documentation requirements as specified by reserve Bank of India from time to time.; (iii) where the transfer of shares does not meet the pricing guidelines under the FEMA, 1999 provided that: a) The resultant FDI is in compliance with the extant FDI policy and FEMA regulations in terms of sectoral caps, conditionalities (such as minimum capitalization, etc.), reporting requirements, documentation etc.; b) The pricing for the transaction is compliant with the specific/explicit, extant and relevant SEBI regulations/guidelines (such as IPO, Book building, block deals, delisting, exit, open offer/substantial acquisition/SEBI SAST); and Chartered Accountants Certificate to the effect that compliance with the relevant SEBI regulations/guidelines as indicated above is attached to the form FC-TRS to be filed with the AD bank and iv) where the investee company is in the financial sector provided that: a) Any ‘fit and proper/due diligence’ requirements as regards the non-resident investor as stipulated by the respective financial sector regulator, from time to time, have been complied with; and b) The FDI policy and FEMA regulations in terms of sectoral caps, conditionalities (such as minimum capitalization, pricing, etc.), reporting requirements, documentation etc., are complied with. As per the existing policy of the Government of India, OCBs cannot participate in this Issue and in accordance with the extant FDI guidelines on sectoral caps, pricing guidelines etc. as amended by Reserve bank of India, from time to time. Investors are advised to confirm their eligibility under the relevant laws before investing and / or subsequent purchase or sale transaction in the Equity Shares of Our Company. Investors will not offer, sell, pledge or transfer the Equity Shares of our Company to any person who is not eligible under applicable laws, rules, regulations, guidelines. Our Company, the Underwriters and their respective directors, officers, agents, affiliates and representatives, as applicable, accept no responsibility or liability for advising any investor on whether such investor is eligible to acquire Equity Shares of our Company.
